DELHI TURNS GAS CHAMBER AS AIR QUALITY ERODES FURTHER

The air quality index in the national capital worsened further on Thursday, to a notch short of the 'severe plus' category. In view of the deteriorating condition, the Commission for Air Quality Management in National Capital Region and Adjoining Areas (CAQM) directed authorities to ban the plying of four-wheeled diesel light motor vehicles in NCR and the entry of trucks into Delhi as part of anti-pollution measures under the final stage of the Graded Response Action Plan.

Parties expedite finalising of candidates

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA

WITH Gujarat going to polls in two phases on December 1 and 5, the schedule for which was finally announced by the Election Commissio on Thursday, political parties accelerated the process to pick their candidates. The state has historically seen a bipolar BJP-Congress contest, but the AAP is trying to make it triangular.

Counting of votes will happen on December 8, along with that of Himachal Pradesh, where polling will be held on November 12. The announcement of the poll schedule was delayed by a few days because of the recent Morbi bridge disaster, Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar said in Delhi. In the morning, Union Home Minister Amit Shah chaired a meeting of BJP leaders in Gandhinagar, where the names of 47 candidates from 13 districts were learnt to be finalised. In all, the state had 182 Assembly seats.

The AAP has been the early bird, announcing names of 118 candidates so far. It is expected to announce its CM face on Friday. The Congress is yet to stir out and make itself visible in a big way, though its leadership has been camping in Delhi since Wednesday to finalise its list of candidates. Names for 98 seats are said to have been cleared by the party high command so far.

As for the BJP, its meeting in Gandhinagar will continue for the next two days to draw up the list of candidates for the rest of the seats. The party is drawing up a shortlist of three-four names for each seat before sending it to to its central election committee.

It has already assigned a district each to more than 20 national leaders, who will stay there till the polls are over to strategise all aspects of planning and implementation right up to the booth level. They will also help identify winnable candidates. P10

Assassination bid on Pak ex-PM Imran

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

PAKISTAN's ousted prime minister Imran Khan was on Thursday shot in the leg during his protest march against the Shehbaz Sharif government, at Wazirabad in Pakistan's Punjab. Khan, 70, was taken to his own Shaukat Khanum Memorial Hospital in Lahore and is out of danger. Police officials said multiple shots were fired, killing one person and injuring several other party workers.

The gunman, who was caught on camera, was overpowered and arrested. "He (Khan) was misleading the people and I could not bear watching it so I attempted to kill him," he said in a video confession.

The gunman opened fire on the container-mounted truck carrying the cricketer-turned politician from close range. Pakistan's Geo TV reported the attacker was identified as Naved, who appeared to be in his early 20s. While no group has claimed responsibility for the attack and initial reports suggest the gunman acted alone, the incident has brought back chilling memories of the assassination of Benazir Bhutto, the first democratically elected female leader of a Muslim country, in 2007.

Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party termed the attack "a well-planned assassination attempt". Local media quoted senior PTI leader Asad Umar as saying that Khan has blamed three people for the attack on his life — Pakistan PM Shehbaz Sharif, interior minister Rana Sanaullah and Army Major General Faisal. MYSTERY DEATH

Renukacharya's nephew found dead in car

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Davanagere

BJP MLA M P Renukacharya's nephew Chandrashekhar, who was missing since October 30, was found dead under mysterious circumstances at H Kadadakatte village of Honnali taluk on Thursday. Chandrashekhar's decomposed body was found in the back seat of his SUV (Hyundai Creta), which was fished out from the Upper Tunga Canal. Chandrashekhar is the son of Ramesh, who is Renukacharya's brother. Renukacharya is Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's political secretary.

The district police took Chandrashekhar's friend Kiran into custody. Kiran is said to have travelled with Chandrashekhar to Gowri Gadde to meet spiritual leader Vinay Guruji and the incident is said to have occurred when they were returning. CONTINUED ON: P5

2030 goals: E-mobility requires a step change

HRITHIK KIRAN BAGADE
@ Bengaluru

INDIA is at the cusp of a major e-mobility revolution, with all eyes on the goal to achieve 30 per cent electric-vehicle (EV) penetration by 2030. However, on this journey, experts say certain critical imperatives are to be considered which will power India to emerge as a promising EV market.

Addressing a conclave on 'Mobility of future: India's transition to clean mobility' at the Global Investors Meet 2022, Sachin Nijhawan, Chief Commercial Officer, Switch Mobility, said, "The transport sector contributes around 6.3% of India's GDP. With the economy growing at a rapid pace, transportation growth is inevitable. But here come some challenges. We have some of the most polluted cities, which unleash massive CO2 emissions, affecting sustainability. Ninety per cent of these emissions are from the transport sector. However, we strongly believe that if we shift towards clean mobility, we can save about 1.7 GW of cumulative CO2 that is emitted." P4

Cabinet to bring in Special Investment Region Bill

The state cabinet on Thursday decided to bring in the Special Investment Region Act which will ensure that the work for investors and industrialists is carried out at greater speed. The Bill will allow the government to create a special authority that acts as a single-window clearance system, which already exists in Gujarat. P4

Students have a field day at the inaugural of Krishi Mela at the University of Agricultural Sciences on Thursday | VINOD KUMAR T

4-DAY KRISHI MELA KICKS OFF

30 agri startups star attractions at the fair

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SHOWCASING the latest technologies in the agriculture sector with special attractions on organic farming and animal husbandry, the four-day Krishi Mela kicked off at the University of Agricultural Sciences in Bengaluru on Thursday.

With the theme 'Innovations in Agriculture' as this year's theme, the mela includes 30 startups in sectors like food processing, tissue culture, crop protection, precision agriculture, agri drones, and marketing and supply chain as star attractions.

After inaugurating the event, Governor Thawarchand Gehlot praised the efforts being made to create employment, increase agricultural exports and increase farmers' income.

"Indian agriculture is still rain-fed. To get more yield, there is a need to do more detailed research on the latest technologies in agriculture, natural farming, conservation of domestic seeds . To become self-reliant in agriculture and become a global power, India needs to focus more on modernisation of agriculture, animal husbandry and food processing," he said.

Agriculture Minister BC Patil said agricultural universities should work as guides for farmers and advised professors and experts not limit themselves to universities, but go to the fields and offer guidance to farmers.

"Everyone says that the Israeli model of agriculture is the best, but our Kolar model is even superior. If this is adopted across the state, production can be doubled," he said. The governor felicitated agri achievers and unveiled the agricultural university practitioner manual. Nine new varieties of crops and 38 types of equipment were also unveiled.

Farmers awarded

Former Prime Minister H D Deve Gowda conferred the Best Farmer award on Gopal Gowda, HM Mari Gowda Award on Navikram, Canara Bank-sponsored best farmer award on C P Krishna, Best Woman Farmer award on M Kavitha. The governor and Agriculture Minister presented the Dr R Dwarkeenath Extension Worker Award to Raje Gowda.

Gemstone dealer-turned-farmer shows saplings of exotic fruits at the mela on Thursday | VINOD KUMAR T

Man leaves gemstone biz, strikes gold

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

ELEVEN years ago, Mohammed Adil bid adieu to his 20-year-old gemstone business and turned to his interest in growing tropical fruit plants fulltime. The decision helped him reap rich dividends as now his turnover by selling exotic saplings in Bengaluru is over Rs 1 crore annually.

The 52-year-old Devanahalli farmer grows Avocados, Macademia nuts, Rambutan, Bush Orange, Water Apple, Star Fruit and Lychee Thai Guava among others in his one-acre nursery.

"I had 4 acres of land where I had many Jamun trees. But, since the yield was less, I searched for exotic fruit trees and my journey as a farmer began 11 years ago. I converted one acre into a nursery where I grew all the mother saplings. In Avocado alone, I have 13 types with four types named after Bengaluru nursery," said Adil.

In the last five years, he has sold over a lakh Avocado saplings. "This tropical fruit is easy to grow with zero maintenance and the yield is just in three years. All one has to do is ensure good care for the first two years," said Adil.

Farmer sells a Bannur sheep for ₹2.01 lakh

Farmer Boregowda with the sheep sold at 2.01 lakh | VINOD KUMAR T

Bengaluru: A farmer sold his five-year-old Bannur sheep for a whopping Rs 2.01 lakh on the first day of Krishi Mela in Bengaluru on Thursday. According to farmers, the Bannur breed of sheep is extinct. Only Mandya district reportedly has about 2,500 such sheep. The farmer, Boregowda has brought 22 sheep including 3 month-old lambs to the Krishi Mela. The buyer is Harish Gowda, who works in a corporate firm. "I have a few ewes of the same breed and I have now bought this one for breeding as it is high time for its conservation." Boregowda said unlike last time, he dropped the idea of bringing bulls of Hallikar breed due to concern over the spread of lumpy skin disease, and has instead brought the Bannur sheep. "The stalls that sell mutton, claiming it to be of Bannur breed, may not be orginial. The breed has seven sub-types and all are facing extinction. I have been raising Bannur sheep for the last 10 to 15 years in our village, Malavalli. I have about 50 of them and they need great care."

K'taka betters school performance index

NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

KARNATAKA showed an overall improvement in school education, attaining a Level 3 (score 851-900) grading, up from Level 5 (751-800) in 2018-19, and placed 14th in the country, according to the Performance Grading Index (PGI), 2020-21, report released by the Union Ministry of Education on Thursday. However, the state showed slow growth in the government's involvement in education and equity domain.

Across various domains, Karnataka showed 5% increase in enrolment and retention of students, and achieving National Education Policy's universal access to education. Further, the state witnessed a 25% increase on improved infrastructural facilities.

The growth in the equity domain was not up to the mark, less than 5%, which focussed on bridging social gaps and providing equal quality of education to all. Lastly, the government domain did not show much progress, around 4%, which highlighted digital attendance of students, teachers, transfer of funds digitally, time taken by the state government to release funds, filling vacancy and transfer of teachers through transparent online system among others.

EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

The PGI evaluation classifies states and union territories into grades/levels as opposed to rankings. Grading allows states and UTs to be considered at the same level, eliminating the trend of one state showing improvement at the cost of others. It measures performance of states/universities on a uniform scale to catalyse the transformational change in the field of school education. The aim is to provide insights on school status, including critical areas of performance and gaps, in the system.

Metro Phase-III gets state govt nod

Bengaluru : The state government recently gave in principle nod to the Rs 16,333 crore Metro Phase-III project, said Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Ltd Managing Director Anjum Parwez. Now, the detailed project report (DPR) will be sent to the Centre for clearance on November 7 or 8. "The finance department has okayed the DPR submitted to it four days ago. No changes were made in what the DPR had proposed. We will submit the report to the Centre through the Additional Chief Secretary of Urban Development for its clearance," Parwez told TNIE. It could take anywhere between two and three months for the Centre to clear it, he added. ENS

KIA new terminal to get Airtel 5G service

Bengaluru : Telecom provider Bharti Airtel on Thursday announced the launch of its cutting edge Airtel 5G Plus services in Terminal-2 of the Kempegowda International Airport on November 11. An official release said Bengaluru will be the first airport in India to get access to the ultrafast 5G network. "Customers can now enjoy blazing speeds while they are at the arrival and departure terminals, lounges, boarding gates, migration and immigration areas, security gates, baggage claim belt areas and so on," it said. All Airtel customers with 5G smart phones will enjoy the services on their existing data plans. There is no need to change the SIM as the existing Airtel 4G SIM is 5G enabled, the release said. ENS

PILGRIM TRAIL

First Bharat Gaurav train to chug off to Kashi from B'luru on Nov 11

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE first Karnataka Bharat Gaurav Darshan Kashi train will make its debut on November 11, announced Muzrai, Wakf and Haj Minister Shashikala A Jolle. Prime Minister Narendra Modi may flag off the service along with the Vande Bharat train from KSR Bengaluru station.

Briefing media persons after inspecting the train on Thursday afternoon, Jolle said, "Karnataka's first Bharat Gaurav train has received a very good response. All the 547 tickets have been booked for the eight-day trip starting on November 11 and concluding on November 18. It will take pilgrims through the ancient cities of Varanasi, Ayodhya and Pragyaraj." For the next trip, planned on November 23, which has not been publicised yet, 100 tickets have already been booked, she added.

The Prime Minister's Office had earlier made informal inquiries about the booking details on the train. "We have written to the PMO requesting that the train be flagged off along with the Vande Bharat Express scheduled to be launched that day," she said.

The actual cost of a ticket, including food and accommodation at hotels, comes to Rs 20,000. "Since the state government is offering a subsidy of Rs 5,000 for the trip to Kashi, the cost works out to Rs 15,000 per person," the minister said. Bookings opened only on October 30 and in four days, the train was fully booked, she added.

The train has been vinyl wrapped on the exterior with popular temples of Karnataka to give it a feel of a pilgrim train. The Moogambika temple at Kollur and the Durga Parameshwari temple in Kateel are among the ones showcased.

"The only unfinished aspect in the train is the pasting of photos of the PM and the CM," an official said.

Siddu goes on Twitter tirade after order on meditation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

OPPOSITION leader Siddaramaiah attacked School Education and Literacy Minister BC Nagesh for the recent order to introduce meditation in schools.

The senior Congress leader took to Twitter, criticising the minister's decision to implement meditation instead of focusing on more pressing matters related to school education. "I have no objection to introducing meditation in schools. But my question is what should be given priority? On one hand, BJP is begging parents for funds and on the other, it is doing gimmicks to divert attention from real issues," he said.

Minister Nagesh issued an order to schools and pre-university colleges in the state to set aside time for meditation. In a circular, he stated that at least 10 minutes of meditation time should be set aside a day for students, as it would prove beneficial to them. "Daily meditation is required in schools to help improve stamina, concentration, health, reduce physical and mental stress among children in the state. This will also help students develop positive attitudes, good habits and become better citizens," he said.

Siddaramaiah criticised the minister, saying he had created several controversies throughout his tenure. "From the time he took oath as education minister, BC Nagesh has been creating controversies by distorting textbooks, failing to recruit teachers and failing to improve infra. He seems to be confused and should immediately take up mediation first," he said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

04th November: Friday is the day sacred to the mighty planet Venus. In our tradition Venus – or Sukra – has her tough side but mainly rules over all sweet and harmonious feelings, tastes and sensations. If you are preparing food today, then delicious desserts could top the bill. And who can complain about that?

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The Sun is still urging you to make the most of social contacts, but already you're moving into a new phase which could last a month and will leave you feeling rather isolated. This is not a bad thing: there'll be moments when you actually want to be alone.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
If a promised move of home or major domestic change is held up over the next six months, the reason is that you should stay where you are and address fundamental questions. It may be that you need to work at a current relation-ship. Or it's possibly that solid repairs and substantial building work are necessary. Which is it to be?

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
I don't think that anyone should tangle with you at the moment. If they do, they must reckon on the fact that you're in a martial mood, and that you will therefore undoubtedly give as good as you get. You are not about to give way gracefully if there's no reason to do so.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Money matters should now be settled, at least as far as the short-term is concerned. You may now like to consider other questions, like where on earth you're going to go on holiday this year, if anywhere. You see, the important connections seem to lie a long way away.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You can make great strides forward at this time. Hopefully personal matters may be put to one side. In that case, you could direct your thoughts towards the financial situation. There are indeed purchases to be made, but savings seem more perfectly to suit your mood.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your role and purpose must be to renew bonds with individuals who have drifted apart. The chance of a dispute at work can be postponed with some fancy footwork and a few words of reassurance. The fact that a partner may be feeling uncomfortable with current arrangements is enough to encourage you to look at how they can be improved.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Did you know that you have a reputation amongst astrologers for being lazy? Actually, I think you are misunderstood. The fact is that at times like these you quite properly resent tasks which are beneath your dignity. You don't like to waste your talents. It's as simple as that.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Your partnerships are not always straightforward. This you know well enough. Your long-term task now is to simplify all family relationships, get down to essentials and strip away the waffle. You might have to wait while a partner gets their act together, though.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Given that you may have to delay decisive moves at home, you may still do your bit to improve your lot. Your strongest emotional contacts are with family members or people you live with and, if you recognise this simple fact, then a number of problems will disappear.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Do get on with plans, proposals and intuitive ideas. If you talk to people today you should find them sympathetic listeners, and this knowledge may encourage you to confide feelings you'd normally keep to yourself. But don't tell them anything that might cause embarrassment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The heavy hand of Saturn is now a semi-permanent influence on your life, but I must say that it is a very favourable one. It could bring eventual security, even though today you may have doubts over your financial future. You'll get your way through cautious and consistent planning.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Don't hang back or give way to a sudden attack of nerves. You have the chance to push yourself forward and it may be another four weeks before a similar opportunity comes your way. Remember all my past advice about the need to charm other people.

Doberman bites into explosive object, dies

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A Doberman was killed after it bit into an explosive object at a farm house in BM Kawal near Kengeri. The owner of the 11-acre farm house had four dogs to guard the property, including two Dobermans. The owner, BK Chetan Kumar, has filed a police complaint, following the dog's death. Police suspect that wildlife poachers or hunters trying to kill wild boars must have thrown the explosive object, stuffed inside meat balls, into the premises. A case under the Explosive Substances Act of 1908 has been registered.

PIC FOR REPRESENTATION

Kumar, in his police complaint, has stated that the incident occurred around 9.30 am on Sunday, after the dogs were unleashed.

"It was a one-year-old male dog. A few months back, a cow had died exactly in the same vicinity. There are many wild boars and deer in the area, and it is suspected that somebody trying to hunt them must have thrown the explosive object. The police are suspecting the involvement of two people. No arrests have been made yet," Kumar told TNIE.

"It appears that the accused had thrown the crude bomb made out of gun powder in an attempt to catch wild boar for meat and skin. Most wild boar poachers come from Tamil Nadu," said an officer.

Hold public consultation on Hessarghatta: CM to officials

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday instructed forest and environment department officials to conduct a public consultation meetings on declaring Hessaraghatta as a grassland. Sources said that at the 16th State Wildlife Board meeting in the city, the CM told officials that the proposal to declare Hessaraghatta as a grassland was chalked out by the Animal Husbandry and Forest departments. There is a need to take public opinion on this before the final decision, Bommai said, and asked the district administration to prepare a report and submit it at the next board meeting.

HC quashes proceedings against youth protesting Babri judgment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court quashed criminal proceedings initiated against a youth for allegedly promoting enmity between two groups on the ground of religion, by raising slogans against the Supreme Court judgment in the Ayodhya-Babri Masjid case inside Mangaluru University campus, due to lack of sanction.

Allowing the petition filed by Safwan, 25, from Konaje Padavu in Mangaluru, Justice K Natarajan quashed proceedings against him for offences punishable under Section 153A read with Section 149 of IPC and Section 3 of the Karnataka Open Space Disfigurement Act.

The proceedings against Safwan, a member of Campus Front of India (CFI), were based on the suo motu complaint registered by Konaje police on November 17, 2019, for allegedly intending to outrage religious feelings by affixing posters in public places.

The court observed that the petitioner and others, with a banner of CFI, entered the university campus and agitated against the Supreme Court. It promotes enmity between two groups on the ground of religion, and prejudice to maintain harmony. This cannot be taken in a light way, the court observed. At the same time, the court said that agitating against the Supreme Court judgment is an offence against the state, punishable under Section 153-A of IPC.

"Though there were witnesses to show that the petitioner was one among the group, the government pleader has not produced any sanction granted by the state government. Though police stated that they obtained sanction while filing the chargesheet, it was not found in the chargesheet, the court added.

Despite lack of sanction, the magistrate has taken cognizance of offences from the state. Therefore, criminal proceedings against the petitioner are liable to be quashed, the court said.

Nimhans santhe highlights importance of mental health

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

INITIATIVES to eliminate regional barriers, importance of yoga in treating mental illness, ensuring gender equal stance for providing healthcare, online care, suicide prevention and counselling were the discussion points at the day-long Mental Health Santhe organised at Nimhans on Thursday.

The santhe was a conclave of mental health professionals, experts and NGOs, who spoke about the prevention, identification and treatment of mental health. Fifty stalls were set up, said Nimhans Director Dr Prathima Murthy.

Highlighting the issue of language barrier keeping regional and local people away from the required healthcare, she said it also caused a communication gap in families as they couldn't understand the condition of their loved ones. With children going back to school, doctors are seeing a rise in cases of anxiety and depression. A Nimhans social work student said students were unwilling to attend school after the pandemic.

The pandemic also led to an increase in cases of domestic violence in women, so the demand for help and care also rose. Dr Supraja TA of the department of psychiatry, Nimhans, said the services available during the pandemic helped women. She said it was important to bring in sensitivity and create a gender-inclusive society.

Health professionals said that such a santhe was helpful as it provided access and knowledge to not only people facing mental health illnesses but to those who could need mental healthcare in future.

Apollo launches Moses 2.0, India's first laser technology to treat kidney stones

ENS @ Bengaluru

APOLLO Hospitals Bengaluru on Thursday launched India's first Moses 2.0, an advanced laser technology to treat large kidney stones and prostate enlargement on high-risk patients in a bloodless and painless manner.

Dr Manohar T, Chief of Urology Department, Apollo Hospital, and Director, Apollo Institute of Renal Sciences, said, "Procedures conducted with Moses 2.0 are endoscopic and do not involve cutting open of the skin. Any size of kidney stones and the prostate can be completely treated. While stones get totally dusted without any any bits remaining, it takes about 90 per cent of the prostate, as against conventional methods that take out only around 40 per cent of the enlarged prostate, without any bleeding or pain caused to the patient and without any risk of regrowth of prostate in the future."

For treatment of stones, the technique is called Moses Laser Technology Fragmentation (MLTF) and when used for prostate treatment, it is called Moses Laser Enucleation of the Prostate (MOLEP).

The technology is a modification of Holmium laser technology, which reduces the operation time to almost an hour for removal of kidney stones and for prostate treatment with precision, further making the post-procedural recovery quicker. It was launched globally three months ago and India became the third country to adopt it at the Seshadripuram branch in Bengaluru.

TEXTILE SECTOR GRABS BIG BUCKS, TO CREATE 36K JOBS

Experts say industry has a long way to go, should adopt technology, stop imports

People check out a stall at Global Investors Meet 2022 at the Bengaluru Palace Grounds on Friday | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

THE textile sector attracted Rs 4,292 crore in investments from the state's players, with Manjushree Garments committing Rs 340 crore and Shahi Exports Rs 150 crore, at the Invest Karnataka-2022 Global Investors Meet (GIM). The sector is expected to generate 36,457 jobs.

Textiles Minister Shankar Patil Munenakoppa attributed the achievement to the government's textile and apparel policy for 2019-2024, which helped beat the Covid-19 pandemic situation.

Department secretary Pankaj Kumar Pandey said initiatives such as 5 per cent interest subsidy to mega industries and MSMEs, incentives and concessions up to 100 per cent, enhancement of wage subsidy from Rs 1,500 to Rs 3,000 in Kalyana Karnataka region, and Rs 1,000 to Rs 2,000 in the rest of the state, contributed to its success.

Four textile parks on the PPP model have been planned in places beyond Bengaluru, for which tenders will be called shortly. The central government is expected to grant one of seven mega parks to Karnataka, that may come up either at Kalaburagi or Vijayapura, Pandey said.

But experts on the panel such as T Ramalingam, while appreciating the government for its policy, observed that the industry has a long way to go as all machinery, including sewing and knitting machines, are imported. "We are missing the bus on technological improvement, and are not using artificial intelligence to develop the textile sector. None of the textile machines, except the spinning ones from Coimbatore, are made in India, and we are paying huge amounts to import them. Unfortunately, all raw materials, especially dyes, are from China," he remarked.

"We are only talking about textiles when major exporters from Europe are setting up their backend offices in Bengaluru."

Naseer Humayun, another expert, observed that it is only the garment industry that gives back 30 per cent of its revenue to the communities, and hoped the state takes a big leap in becoming the garment capital of the country.

Koushaldendra Narayan of Silver Spark presented environmentally and economically sustainable practices adopted by the industry.

New tech changed people's mindset: Randi Zuckerberg

Bengaluru: Adopting new technologies are forcing people to change their mindset and the way they think. Web-3 technology is the way forward, however, progress towards that is still slow, said Randi Zuckerberg, Founder, Zuckerberg Media. Speaking during the session on Innovation and Entrepreneurship in the Post Pandemic World on Thursday, she pointed out that there are less woman in the field of technological research, and attributed it to an environment of discouragement. Today, many have become become YouTubers and content creators, and their focus is on how to monetise and create audience, and urged investors to think of the future.

'500 firms are working on Web 3.0 in India'

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

IMAGINE an Artificial Intelligence (AI) assistant joining a virtual meet and taking notes on your behalf and users having control of their data without letting social media firms create a profile of users on their own.

Experts at a session organised as a part of GIM spoke about the role of new new-age technologies such as AI, cloud, Web 5, which is called the Emotional Web, metaverse and tokens that play a significant role in the fast-changing world.

Irina Ghose, COO, Microsoft India, said in the last 24 months, AI and cloud-related projects are at a speed that has never been witnessed before.

She spoke about Web 3.0 and how everything is happening in a decentralised manner with blockchain. "Cloud is the way things will get powered in the form of digital native applications," Ghose said.

Web 3.0 is getting a lot of attention these days among startups, and Nana Murugesan, SVP International Business, CoinBase, said that 500 companies are working on Web 3.0 and of which four are unicorns. Though many of these Web 3 companies are in Tier-1 cities, according to Murugesan, there is a rapid growth among Tier-2 and 3 cities as well.

Experts also discussed the role of Web 3 and how Web 5, the symbiotic web, will communicate with us like a personal assistant. They also spoke about Fireflies, an AI voice assistant. In June this year, Jack Dorsey, co-founder, Twitter, first spoke about Web 5, which is considered to be more powerful. Rajesh Duddu, SVP and Global Business Head, Blockchain and Metaverse, Tech Mahindra, spoke about the emerging metacommerce.

Welspun One to invest ₹2K cr in K'taka

BENGALURU: Welspun One Logistics Parks (WOLP) has signed an MoU with the Karnataka government and it intends to spend Rs 2,000 crore in the state. The company said it will utilise government and private land parcels in Karnataka for the construction of Grade A warehouse facilities and logistics parks. The warehousing facilities and logistics parks will spread across 6.28 million sq ft and will be built over a five-year period that will help generate more than 6,000 jobs. Balkrishan Goenka, chairman, Welspun Group, said, "Our investment of Rs 2,000 crore not only paves the way for Welspun One to expand into the growing warehousing and logistics market but also significantly demonstrates our ongoing dedication to the Indian economy." WOLP, an integrated fund, development and asset management organisation, said Karnataka has shown its support by committing to assist Welspun One Logistics Parks with relevant registrations, necessary permissions, approvals and clearances as per prevailing policies from the concerned departments of the state. With the MoU, the company seeks to raise the standard of the sector's operations in South India.

'Challenge is to entertain in wildlife films'

Bosky Khanna @Bengaluru: The challenge for wildlife film makers in the present scenario, is to create awareness while providing entertainment, said noted climate activist and film maker from Australia Chadden Hunter. Speaking on 'India's Pivotal Role in Arresting Climate Crises' session at the Global Investors Meet (GIM), Hunter said that if videos of turtles, snakes and iguanas dying because of urbanisation, are shown in the first few minutes of a movie, the audience will switch off. "People are looking at wildlife and environment movies and series as a source of escapism. There is already a rise in depression and stress, so it is a challenge to ensure that awareness is delicately woven in," he said. While there is a rise in demand for wildlife awareness through documentaries, films and clips on social media, there is also a rise in responsibility. Due technological interventions, including cameras, phones and drones, conservation and protection is being addressed with the right photographs and shots to convey the message aptly. Addressing the issue of climate crisis, Hunter said India is taking the lead in green technology. A lot is being done in the agricultural sector, on fossil fuels and green energy. However, the government should stop buying coal and reduce dependence on it, he said.

'India to be $12-14 bn EV market by 2025'

INDIA'S EV sector holds an advantageous position, sailing on growing transport demand. The industry is poised to achieve a value of $12-14 billion by 2025, and the government is offering subsidies and tax benefits to support adoption, both on the demand and supply sides. However, most of the country's vehicle demand is for internal combustion products.

"Around 85 per cent of our energy is dependent on oil imports. We will be consuming around 7 million barrels of oil in 2030 per day. With suitable EV penetration, oil import bills may come down by roughly 15 per cent, translating to at least Rs 1 lakh crore in savings. If we achieve our goal of 30 per cent EV penetration by 2030, we can reduce particulate matter and CO2 emissions by 18 per cent and greenhouse gases by 4 per cent," Nijhawan added.

Expressing that EV technology has to be encouraged across the transport sector, Sun Mobility Co-founder and Chairman Chetan Maini said, "The impact we need to make is a step change, and not an incremental one. The policies that we have today are mostly geared towards two-wheelers, three-wheelers and buses, but probably we could add trucks to that as well. While hybrids were a step in the evolution of alternate fuel-run vehicles, it makes more sense now to place investments directly into electric vehicles, since the technology is mature."

Likewise, the experts say the technology surrounding charging infrastructure should be agnostic, the policies looking at all existing business models, be it mobility as a service, battery as a service, battery-leasing, and solutions supporting slow-charge, fast-charge or battery-swapping. Besides, ways must be found to rationalise them into one element across platforms.

Reduce obstacle for women: Ex-SBI chief

Donna Eva @ Bengaluru : Former SBI chairperson Arundhati Bhattacharya said that a situation is needed where women face less obstacles as they go up the ladder, and the implicit bias against women is obliterated. "We found that many women were not going for their rural stints which would make them eligible for promotion. This was because they were not getting anyone to rent them a house in these areas if they were unmarried or single, or if their spouse was not accompanying them," she said. Speaking at a panel discussing on 'Advancing gender diversity: Journey post shattering the glass ceiling' at GIM on Thursday, she pointed that there is a bias which she understood after joining the private sector. "When it comes to promotion, there is an implicit bias against women, which must be recognised. We must have empathy to be able to identify the root cause behind why women are falling behind in the workforce, and try to address these issues," she said. The other panelists were Biocon founder Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, Godrej Consumer Products executive chairperson Nisaba Godrej, and Women and Child Development Minister Halappa Achar. Shaw said that investment that is pouring into Karnataka should translate into more inclusive jobs, especially with environmental, social, and governance (ESG) being the central focus in corporate culture. "My hope is that we create jobs that are inclusive devoid of the gender bias, and hopefully there are more women in the economic mainstream," she said.

'₹2.5Lcr investment likely in green energy by 2032'

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government expects an investment of Rs 2.5 lakh crore in the renewable energy sector by 2023, Additional Chief Secretary, Energy Department, G Kumar Naik, said here on Thursday.

He was speaking at a panel discussion on 'Reinventing the energy ecosystem: Future of energy generation in the world' at the ongoing GIM.

He said the department plans to set up a 10,000 MW unit under a public private partnership model to store the renewable energy produced. The government is working on setting up a pump storage unit of 2,000 MW capacity in Sharavathi. Naik said that Karnataka is leading in production of renewable energy, but there is a need to address ways to store the energy. Adlan Ahmad, CEO, Petronas Hydrogen, said that with governments working on hydrogen energy, some companies, including his, are working on technologies where ammonia is produced by converting hydrogen, which is then stored and shipped. He said that while India has a lot of potential for round-the-clock green energy generation, land and other cost factors are expensive.

Kapil Maheshwari, Leader, Renewable Energy, RIL, said that in another year, India will be number 1 in net energy green hydrogen export. Work is also on in the 1-1-1 scheme where 1 kg of hydrogen energy will be sold for $1. Venu Nuguri, MD and CEO, Hitachi Energy, India and South Asia, said that to attain the goals set by the Centre at the COP26, technologies and the pace of development should speed up.

Cabinet nod for tracking devices in public vehicles

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka cabinet on Thursday approved the installation of vehicle location tracking devices and emergency panic buttons in all public transport vehicles, including buses, taxis and autos.

Law Minister J C Madhuswamy told reporters after the cabinet meeting that the decision was taken as per directions from the Union government. He said Rs 20.36 crore has been sanctioned for the project, of which 60 per cent will be borne by the Union government and the remaining by the state government.

The minister said the move is primarily aimed at ensuring the safety of women and children. It will also help monitor the speed of vehicles to prevent accidents on highways, besides keeping a tab on parking. Through a central mechanised system, the authorities will be able to track whether the vehicles are plying on the right routes, and also keep a check on unauthorised vehicles. The devices will be installed in over 6.08 lakh vehicles, including 4.51 lakh cabs and taxis, 16,432 school buses, 23,077 private transport vehicles, 24,701 KSRTC buses, 5,138 contract vehicles, 1,900 tourist buses and 85,949 goods vehicles.

The government's welfare programmes including hike in SC/ST quota, regularisation of pourakarmikas will help BJP in the upcoming polls," he claimed. CM Basavaraj Bommai observed that the political equation has been changing against the Congress as SC/ST and OBCs are moving away from them. "The situation has improved for BJP compared to the 2018 polls," he claimed. Congress seva Dal state vice-president Hanumantha Rao Javali also joined the party. ENS

Minister, MLA stay at site, work done in three days

Ballari: The canal work at Vedavathi river near Ballari, which had been pending over the last few months, was completed in three days. Transport minister B Sriramulu came to the rescue of farmers who were demanding release of water from Vedavathi dam over the last few months. After the delay, the minister decided to stay at the construction site until it was done. Congress MLA B Nagendra from Ballari Rural too joined the minister, and political influence injected the required speed into the work. Sriramulu also slept at the construction site for two nights, and during the day, interacted with the workers. Now, when the water is flowing through the fields, both leaders have decided to leave the site. "I did not put pressure on the company, but motivated the workers," Sriramulu said. Kiran Balannanavar

After flak, tender on footwear stall job nixed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER being slammed by people and various organisations, the state Endowment department withdrew its tender notification that specified reservation for Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe community members to look after footwear at temples in Bengaluru.

Last month, the Endowment department had called for tenders for works at Doddaganapathi Temple, Dodda Basavanna Temple and Karanji Anjaneya Swamy Temple in Basavanagudi in Bengaluru, including selling of pooja items, picking up broken coconuts, selling tender coconuts, taking care of devotees' footwear and other commercial activities. The notification mentioned General category for all, expect SC/ST reservation for those who take care of footwear outside temples.

Various individuals, activists, organisations and political leaders slammed the government and officials for issuing an "insensitive" notification.

An official told TNIE that ever since the notification was published in newspapers on October 31, they started getting hundreds of calls every day, demanding withdrawal of the notification. "On Thursday morning, it was withdrawn. We are yet to consider a fresh notification with changes," the official said.

The notification also attracted political criticism, with the Congress accusing the government of insulting SCs. Many leaders, including former minister Priyank Kharge, charged the government with encouraging untouchability. The BJP hit back with circulars in 2015 and 2018, during Siddaramaiah's tenure, reserving the job for SC/STs.

Tumakuru, Dharwad to be special investment zones

Bengaluru: The state Cabinet on Thursday approved the Special Investment Region Act to ensure that work for investors and industrialists is done at greater speed. The Bill allows the government to create a special authority that acts as a single-window clearance system, which exists in Gujarat.

Law Minister JC Madhuswamy said Karnataka is coming up with a new Bill that allows special investment zones across the state. Initially, Tumakuru and Dharwad districts will be notified as special investment zones, and an investment authority will be formed at the state level. He said the investment authority will monitor the process of setting up zones, including land acquisition, fixing tax slabs and tax collection, and added that 30% of tax collected will be given to the local body. However, he said the KIADB will not be abolished, but will have additional responsibilities.

Water on tap for homes in 224 constituencies soon

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

THE state government plans to provide safe drinking water on taps to households in urban local bodies, town panchayats, town municipal corporations and city civic bodies in all 224 constituencies, which has not been officially announced.

The plan will be realised through a network of water pipes for water supply. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the project on 11 November during his visit to the state. With six months to go for the state polls, this is expected to be a game changer because of the huge demand from the people for safe drinking water to homes. There have been reports that drinking water had to led to hospitalisations and even deaths.

When contacted, Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj said that the funds will be provided through Amrut 2-Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban transformation. The project cost is expected to be about Rs 7,300 crore.

Responding to the announcement, Union Minister Pralhad Joshi said, "No PM has till now dared to cover all households, especially in smaller areas, with safe drinking water." KPCC president DK Shivakumar said, "A survey is needed to see if the project will only benefit contractors and bureaucrats." Former CM HD Kumaraswamy said, "This ambitious plan will remain only on paper. Remember when they promised to give Rs 1 lakh to the next of kin of those who died due to Covid, and check how many have actually got it."

Rejecting Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan's charge that he was politically interfering in the appointment of V-Cs, Governor Arif Mohammed Khan offered to resign if the accusation was proven. Khan also challenged the CM to step down if he could not substantiate his allegations

Woman, twin babies die after govt hosp refuses admission

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Tumakuru

IN a heart wrenching incident, a 30-year-old pregnant woman and her twin babies died during delivery at her home on Thursday after she was denied treatment at Tumakuru district general hospital on Wednesday after she failed to produce her health card.

The woman, identified as Kasturi, was a resident of Bharatinagar in Tumakuru. She developed labour pain on Wednesday night and reached the hospital with the help of her neighbour at 9 pm.

However, it is alleged that the hospital asked her to produce her 'mother health card'. As Kasturi did not have the card, she was asked to go to Bengaluru's Victoria Hospital. Kasturi, however, returned to her home and developed complications and bleeding while delivering the babies on Thursday morning and eventually died along with the newborns. The victim's husband was not in Tumakuru at the time of the incident, sources said. The victim has a six-year-old daughter.

Health and Family Welfare Minister Dr K Sudhakar holds a meeting with the DC and other officials at the Tumakuru district general hospital on Thursday | EXPRESS

The incident has come under severe criticism from both the Congress and the JDS.

Health and Family Welfare Minister Dr K Sudhakar visited the hospital on Thursday evening and took stock of the situation. Duty doctor Usha AR and three nurses have been suspended pending departmental inquiry, the minister added.

Meanwhile, JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy took to Twitter to slam the government. "A while ago I tweeted about the dark side of state @ BJP4Karnataka government administration (recession incident) which is drowning in politics, elections and propaganda. But, a more terrible and gut-wrenching incident took place in Tumkur, which shook the whole of Karnataka(sic)" he tweeted , demanding Sudhakar's resignation.

"Is mother card important, or the treatment? Life matters, or rules? @mla_sudhakar What is important? Is the rule mandatory for treatment that is not for corruption?", the Congress attacked the minister.

COUPLE WITH ILL KID STOPPED BY COPS FOR NOT WEARING HELMET

MANDYA: In a shocking incident reported from Mandya, a couple who were rushing to a hospital for the treatment of their ailing seven-month-old child were reportedly stopped by the traffic police as they were not wearing helmets. The incident took place in Mahaveer Circle in Mandya on Thursday when the couple — Abhishek and his wife — were stopped by the traffic police for the traffic violation and asked to pay a fine of Rs 500. Although the couple pleaded to the cops that they were in an emergency and did not have money to pay the fine, their appeal went unheeded. Abhishek then asked his wife to sit on the pavement with the baby and wait for him until he arranged the money. Abhishek got the money transferred to his account from a friend and withdrew the same from an ATM and paid the fine, only after which the couple was let off. The incident has come under sharp criticism from several quarters, including JDS leader and former CM HD Kumaraswamy. ENS

TN CAR BLAST

SEVERAL documents allegedly establishing Jameesha Mubin, who died in the Coimbatore car blast on October 23, as ISIS sympathiser were shared in media on Thursday. Coimbatore police, which seized the material from Mubin's house two days after the blast, had been investigating the case based on the documents. Police sources said the documents are authentic, adding investigations would be conducted on who shared them with media.

"Statements threatening people who are against Islam and wordings of ISIS flag, in Arabic, written in a slate were found inside Mubin's house in Coimbatore during a search on October 25, Several documents and hand-drawn diagrams related to jihad were also recovered. The diagrams are suspected to be made by Mubin and link him to ISIS," said sources in city police. One of the diagrams allegedly classified humans into two groups: "Kafirs and Muslims". Another diagram stated, "Jihad is the duty of youth and not of children or old people." A third diagram described two sacred scriptures of Islam, including the Quran and the names of six canonical books of Hadith (traditions of Prophet Muhammad, based on his sayings and actions), the sources added.

On Thursday, some people found damaged parts of the SUV near the Upper Tunga Canal at H Kadadakatte village between Nyamathi and Honnali and brought the matter to the notice of the police and Renukacharya.

The probe teams spotted the car in the canal and retrieved it with the help of fire and emergency services. The front window pane of the car was broken on the left side and the front portion of the car was also damaged. Both airbags were found to be deployed. Police found another car which was following Chandrashekhar's car. The cops are carrying out investigations from all angles, mainly the financial angle.

SP CB Ryshyant confirmed that the body found is of Chandrashekhar and the car too belonged to him. Renukacharya, who arrived at the spot, was inconsolable.

TV Devaraj, who has earlier worked as a police inspector at Honnalli and cracked many cases in the past has been appointed as the Special Investigation Officer to probe the case.

CM Bommai said the next course of action will be based on the complaint given by Chandrashekhar's family members. Home Minister Araga Jnanendra said police are investigating the case from all angles.

ANOTHER DAVID AND GOLIATH FIGHT AND THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

The biblical story of little David taking down the giant Goliath does not always play out in real life that way. Despite all his craftiness and chutzpah, David is fallible, allowing Goliath to crush the challenger. Something similar happened at the news website, The Wire, which sadly failed in the editorial rigour it prided itself on and lost its USP. The crowd-funded site had taken slingshots at not just one but two Goliaths, social media colossus Meta and the ruling BJP. Both attacks were off-target. While one of the behemoths has since gone for its jugular, the other hasn't put the squeeze just yet.

It all started with The Wire running an investigative series alleging Meta took down anti-regime posts at the behest of BJP's IT cell chief Amit Malviya. It refused to concede for a while when Meta pointed its finger at the spurious documentation the reports had relied on. That its initial stories on the series carried the byline of one of its celebrated founders complicated matters further. When more evidence nailed its lie, the news portal first put the series on hold and then withdrew it in full. When realisation dawned on the gravity of its blunder, it threw the journalist who had sourced the now discredited documents under the bus, filing a police complaint that accused him of mental imbalance. Editorial oversight could happen in the best of newsrooms across the world. But the most acceptable process is to put out a quick retraction with an unqualified apology and initiate swift disciplinary action. Getting a journalist booked goes against the basic tenets of freedom of the press.

Shortly after the retraction, the establishment swooped down on The Wire following a complaint from Malviya. It extensively searched the premises of its top journalists. It seized electronic gadgets, including laptops and mobile phones, without giving them the hash value of the digital devices they sought to avoid planting evidence against them in future. The Wire has had a stellar past, like its expose on the Pegasus snoop gate. Its apprehension that its electronic footprint could reveal sources—media organisations are so protective of—is not unfounded. If Meta were to sue it in the US, it could be a double whammy. Any way it pans out, this newspaper stands by the freedom of the press. It must be upheld in its letter and spirit.

INDIAN START-UPS FACE BIG FUNDING CHALLENGE

Two decades after the infamous dotcom burst, Indian start-ups are staring at a grave fund crunch. The global economic slowdown and the plummeting of IT stocks in the US market have created a hostile environment for the new-age companies looking for funds here. After peaking at $17 billion in the July-September quarter of 2021, the funding has lost its momentum and reported a steady decline quarter on quarter. What has crippled the drive is the decision by international investors and venture capitalists to go slow on new deals and commitments amid the raging global slowdown.

Several large investors such as Tiger Global and SoftBank have significantly pulled back from the market. In October, total funding slipped to $1.34 billion, sharply lower than the $4.2 billion raised by start-ups in the corresponding month last year. The companies that raised money at sky-high valuations in 2021—over 20–25 times their annual revenues—have seen the multiple dwindle in 2022. So far, 2022 has seen a total of $22 billion in funding compared to $42 billion raised in 2021, a blockbuster year with over 1,500-plus deals.

Edutech major Byju's is a classic case. India's highest-valued start-up found itself in trouble and struggled to close the deal it entered into with Aakash Educational Services. Its delayed audited results for 2020–21 threw a shocking surprise, with losses soaring nearly 20-fold to ₹4,589 crore. The company had to lay off several of its staff. In October, it, however, raised $250 million from its existing investors, with the valuation remaining unchanged at $22 billion.

Several other edutech and fintech companies faced a similar situation as the number of funding rounds shrank month-on-month in 2022, with a steady fall in average ticket size. It has been a long struggle for them to save their valuations from slipping down. As a start-up investor rightly said, India's new-age companies ought to prioritise value creation over valuation and chase 'profit pools' rather than 'capital pools' as they scale up. Certainly, the 'funding' winter is unlikely to go away in the next two to three quarters, and it will be a big challenge for several start-ups as they continue to book losses. Some unicorns may see a change in their status with the rupee fall jeopardising their dollar valuations. Some others will have to shed the growing image that they are valued on shaky metrics. The fund crunch and the rupee fall have decelerated the evolution of India's unicorn club.

QUICK TAKE

DO NOT GAG THE GIG

Boston Consulting Group says India's gig space may expand to 90 million jobs in a decade. Niti Aayog's estimate is a conservative 24 million workers by 2029–30 from today's 7.7 million. Mushrooming quick commerce apps are pushing the demand for delivery workers, transforming gig into a fast-growing hybrid work model. Given its low-entry barrier, the gig has immense potential for job creation. With joblessness rising, the government should use this opportunity to bring the sector under an organisational framework. Crucially, it must address the challenges like gig workers' job insecurity, ambiguous employment status, irregular wages and lack of social security.

AAP's entry into Gujarat was initially music to BJP's ears as it saw a split of opposition votes affecting the Congress

ONE DISRUPTOR AND TWO OLD FOES PERK UP GUJARAT POLLS

R K MISRA

Senior journalist and commentator

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The Gujarat assembly election dates are out. The state faces a triangular fight. The ruling BJP and traditional opponent Congress lock horns while Arvind Kejriwal's Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), the third factor this time, remains a riddle, wrapped in a mystery, inside an enigma, as the saying goes. The most frequently asked question in Gujarat is, who will AAP gore?

The dates were announced after Prime Minister Narendra Modi concluded his present three-day visit, his fourth in just over a month. The stage is set for a tussle that will directly impact the 2024 national polls.

If he sweeps Gujarat, Modi strides the national arena for a third stint with the confidence of a winner; if just over the threshold, the lame duck victory will turn into a handicap. "You cannot defeat the BJP in Gujarat with Modi at the helm," say BJP leaders confidently, adding, "He has the gift of the gab in turning any situation to his advantage." Both the Congress and the AAP disagree vehemently. The BJP in Gujarat is vulnerable like never before, is their common refrain, though voiced separately.

Be that as it may, the electoral waters in Gujarat have been muddied by the presence of AAP, which has been aggressively foraying into the state, aiming to carve a place for itself through its high-profile campaigning. "We are playing to win, have little to lose and much to gain, whatever the outcome," point out their state leaders.

On the other hand, the Congress has adopted an uncharacteristic low profile concentrating on door-to-door campaigning, building on its strength in the rural areas and voter groups which have been worst affected by the economic downturn, including farmers, jobless youth and the small-scale entrepreneur. "We are targeting 125 winnable ones of the total 182 seats though we shall contest many more," says the chief party spokesperson.

BJP has ruled Gujarat for almost 25 years and Modi for more than half of it. He is the longest-serving chief minister in the state's history but still short of former Congress Chief Minister Madhavsinh Solanki's unbeaten record of winning 149 seats out of the total 182 in 1985. Modi's high point was 127 seats to the Congress' 51 in the 2002 elections, held under the shadow of the Godhra train carnage and the statewide communal riots that left a thousand dead. After that, it has been a steady downhill journey to 117 in 2007, 115 in 2012 and 99 in 2017.

The Congress has made small, sure-footed gains from 51 seats in 2002 to 59 in 2007, 61 in 2012 and 77 in 2017. Dr Manish Doshi, the party spokesperson, candidly admits that 2002 was the lowest point for his party due to the resort to blatant communal polarisation, but they still managed 51 seats, and there has been no looking back thereafter. "Wait for some surprises this time," he adds.

Doshi relies on Gujarat's electoral history to bolster his claim that the ensuing election will be a straight contest between the two traditional rivals. Influential political leaders of their time had floated regional parties in Gujarat, which failed to garner electoral approval.

These included Chimanbhai Patel, who quit the Congress following his ouster in the face of the Navnirman students agitation and formed the Kisan Mazdoor Lok Paksha, Shankersinh Vaghela, who walked out of the BJP to form the Rashtriya Janata Party, and veteran BJP leader Keshubhai Patel, who formed the Gujarat Parivartan Party. All came a cropper.

AAP's entry into Gujarat was initially music to BJP's ears as it saw a split of opposition votes affecting the Congress and working to their advantage. Kejriwal's set-up was also more keyed into Himachal Pradesh after its Punjab victory and planned to use the ensuing elections in Gujarat as an opportunity for organisation-building and no more. With Delhi and Punjab in the bag, Himachal would be a natural priority to enable it to go for Haryana in 2024, thus making for a contiguous landmass political domain.

However, the Punjab victory also brought AAP into the crosshairs of the BJP, which came alive to its plans, and its Himachal in-charge, Satyendar Jain, ended up behind bars after Enforcement Directorate scrutiny. In a change of strategy, AAP, which was hitherto targeting only the Congress-held rural strongholds in Gujarat, then decided to beard the BJP in its den with an all-out assault. In June this year, AAP revamped its state unit, appointed 850 office-bearers, enrolled 30,000 members, and publicly announced its intent to take on the ruling BJP with Kejriwal leading from the front.

AAP's proven success has been only in the urban areas, considered the BJP's citadel. In the Surat Municipal Corporation elections last year, the BJP won 93 and AAP 27 seats in a 120-member house while the Congress was wiped out. In the subsequent Gandhinagar Municipal Corporation elections, the BJP bagged 41 of the total 44 seats, with the Congress down to two seats and AAP taking the remaining solitary seat. However, the combined votes of the Congress and AAP were higher than the BJP's. All the eight municipal corporations of Gujarat—Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, Rajkot, Junagadh, Jamnagar, Bhavnagar and Gandhinagar are BJP-controlled. Though Modi sought to tackle anti-incumbency by replacing chief minister Vijay Rupani and his entire cabinet, which was under fire for laxity in dealing with Covid, there are indications that this group guillotine has not worked. The recent Morbi bridge collapse, with over 150 fatalities, including many children, has brought the focus back on inept governance and corruption, adding to the ruling party's woes.

If AAP is now intently targeting the urban bastions of the BJP with a high-profile campaign, the Congress is skimming the ground, and its focus is more in the rural and tribal areas. In the 2017 Vidhan Sabha elections, of the 55 urban constituencies in Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Rajkot and Surat, the BJP bagged 44 and the Congress 11. Of the 127 rural and semi-urban constituencies, the Congress and allies won 68 and the BJP 55. It was no wonder that the prime minister, in one of his public rallies, warned party cadres that the surface sloth of the Congress hid an active rural, grassroots contact programme. He also said that for this election, the Congress had outsourced the work of heaping calumny to the AAP, thereby seeking to equate the two as working in tandem. Are they, even if informally?

SHAPING OF MALLIKARJUN KHARGE, THE 'SOLILLADA SARADARA'

B S ARUN

Bengaluru-based political commentator

The story of Mapanna Mallikarjun Kharge is one of an ordinary party worker rising to the top position of national president of the Congress, something that rarely happened in the 137-year-old organisation in the last few decades. Of course, during that long innings spanning over five decades, Kharge, the 80-year-old quintessential Congressman, has enjoyed nearly every position in the party and the government, except that of the chief minister. It is rare for any leader to be a municipal president, district party chief, president of the state unit of the party and general secretary at the national level besides being a minister in every Congress government from 1972 till 2004 in Karnataka, in addition to adorning the post of a minister at the Centre. He also has the rare distinction of being in leadership positions in the Opposition in Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha and the state assembly.

But then, Kharge comes from humble beginnings and one who has seen tragedy early in life. Born at Warawatti in Bhalki taluk of Karnataka's Bidar district, which falls in the Hyderabad-Karnataka region then ruled by the Nizams, he was the son of a mill labourer. During the Razakar movement, he saw communal strife that took the lives of his mother and sister as his house was burnt down. For five years, the family had to move from place to place to escape violence.

The communal frenzy made a lasting impression on a young Kharge, shaping his opinion on communalism, making him commit to secularism. An out and out loyalist to the party and to the Gandhi family, he named three of his five children as Rahul, Priyank and Priyadarshini.

Kharge groomed his leadership skills in student politics at the Seth Shankarlal Lahoti Law College where he was a union leader and studied law. He also worked in a cinema theatre to support the family. He was a sportsman in college as he played kabaddi and hockey. He was injured when he was playing hockey—he got hit by a hockey stick so strongly that he had to quit playing the game. He attributes his leg pain even today to this injury. As a lawyer, he took up labour-related cases and practiced under Shivraj Patil, who rose to become a judge of the Supreme Court.

The senior-most Congressman from Karnataka plunged into politics in 1969 when Indira Gandhi was facing challenges to her leadership. Soon, Devaraj Urs chose him to fight the assembly election in 1972 from Gurmitkal. He won the polls and won every election thereafter—as many as nine times as MLA. He was successful as MP too as he won twice from the Gulbarga seat (now Kalaburagi)—all these victories earned him the sobriquet of 'Solillada Saradara' (undefeated chieftain/leader). However, he tasted defeat for the first time in his career—in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls, he lost to his one-time election manager Umesh Jadhav, who had crossed over to the BJP. But Congress leadership was not ready to lose Kharge's services—he was brought to Rajya Sabha and made Leader of the Opposition. Fluent in Kannada, Hindi, Urdu, Marathi and Telugu, his successes at the hustings are attributed to his close affinity with the voters, knowing party workers by their names, vast administrative experience, contribution to his constituency and state, an astute political mind and an ability to take all leaders together. While he assumed so many responsibilities, he never even once went after them, including the latest one of the party president.

With his elevation now, Kharge is the first leader from outside the Gandhi family to assume the party chief's post in recent times. Will he be a rubber stamp?

A foodie, Kharge loves non-vegetarian fare and a warm jowar roti. His wife, Radhabai, is a great host at their house in Kalaburagi. Whenever he visits home, which is rare these days, the Kharge house will be teeming with people, especially party workers and leaders and other help-seekers. Among his major contributions to the backward Hyderabad-Karnataka region include pushing the Centre to accord Special Status under Article 371(J), thereby enabling reservation in jobs and college admissions for locals, a ESI hospital-cum-medical college and the Central University of Karnataka, both for Kalaburagi.

Amidst all these, if there is one post that has eluded the octogenarian, it is that of Karnataka chief minister. The veteran leader narrowly missed the post thrice—in 1999 when S M Krishna became CM, in 2004 when his close friend N Dharam Singh got the post when H D Deve Gowda of JD(S) joined hands with Congress to form the government (rumour was that Gowda preferred Singh and not Kharge who was seen as not pliable), and in 2013 when he lost out to Siddaramaiah. It seems many wanted him to rebel each time, but Kharge remained quiet and loyal to the party decision each time. He left Congress once along with his mentor Urs in 1979 but returned to the parent party a year later. When S Bangarappa was the chief minister, Kharge was very close to him but he chose to stay back in the party though the former rebelled and parted ways with the Congress.

Despite his long public life, Kharge, always seen in spotless white dhoti and kurta, rarely courted controversy. When he was a minister in the state, a flustered Kharge moved quickly to surrender a site that his daughter was given by a house building society. When he was party floor leader in Lok Sabha, a complaint was given to Lok Ayukta in Raichur that he had amassed wealth. However, not much has been heard about it since.

With his elevation now, Kharge becomes the first leader from outside the Gandhi family to assume the party chief's post in recent times. Will he be a rubber stamp and carry out what Sonia and Rahul Gandhi want? He may listen to them but certainly would put forth his point of view to ensure a consensus for any issue or crisis.

Is there anything else left for him to achieve? If there is one, it is that of chief ministership. With Siddaramaiah and D K Shivakumar known to be at loggerheads, if Congress succeeds in defeating BJP in Karnataka, who knows, Kharge may become a consensus candidate! Cricket is known to be a game of uncertainty, and so is politics as we have seen most often.

BJP's ploy

Apropos of After Modi-Gehlot bonhomie in rally, Pilot seeks action against CM (Nov 3). The Congress' attempts to revamp the party has unnerved the BJP leadership. It is once again using the weapon of divide and rule to destabilise the governments in opposition-ruled states. Rather than falling into this trap, Congress leaders must stop infighting, and focus on the rising unemployment, inflation, and religious polarisation.

A real educator

Apropos of Thank you teacher! Children won't starve anymore (Nov 3). Lincy George is a wonderful teacher, providing food and knowledge to starving kids. It speaks volumes about her attitude. This good deed might encourage other educators to impart more than just knowledge.

Strong mother

Apropos of Mother of 3 becomes J&K's first e-rickshaw driver (Nov 3). I am extremely happy to read such news. A mother of three children is taking the initiative to take care of her family financially. This shows that women know they are equal to men. I hope that many women get inspired by her.

TN govt vs governor

The DMK government's demand to initiate a memorandum to the president, signed by party MPs to recall governor R N Ravi, needs introspection. While the West Bengal CM came to Chennai recently to attend a family function of the governor in her state, the TN government's move against the first citizen of the State was not in good taste. The governor is not a politician. His office cannot be jeopardised by the state for its own reasons.

Gujarat polls

All eyes are on Gujarat since the EC has announced the dates. PM Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah from Gujarat emerged as undisputed champions in Indian politics, so Gujarat polls assume paramount importance nationally. With the Congress in the ring and the AAP competing as well after its Punjab success, there will be a triangular duel.

Vigilance in bureaucracy

Apropos of the quick take, Value of vigilance (Nov 2). Holding a bureaucratic post for a long time cannot eliminate corruption. They will continue to receive bribes and get work done with ease. But these officers must realise that they can get caught red-handed, and that it will ultimately affect their families.

Counting for 7 seats in 6 states to take place on November 6

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE by-elections to seven assembly constituencies spread across six states, which were held on Thursday, saw voter turnout ranging from 31.74 per cent in Andheri (East) of Maharashtra to 77.55 per cent in Telangana's Munugode seat.

The counting of votes will be held on November 6.

The seven seats include — Gopalganj and Mokoma (Bihar), Adampur (Haryana), Andheri East (Maharashtra), Dhamnagar (Odisha), Munugode, (Telangana), and Gola Gorakhnath (Uttar Pradesh), respectively.

The by-election to these seats are a keenly watched one as the BJP is in direct contest with regional parties such as the Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS), the Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD), the Samajwadi Party (SP), and the Biju Janata Dal (BJD). The results are expected to set the tone for Assembly elections in some states and the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

Among the six states, election to the Munugode Assembly seat in Telangana is expected to be a prestigious battle between the ruling TRS and the BJP, which is looking to spread its wings in the state. Though leaders of TRS and BJP accused each other of luring the voters with money and liquor even on polling day, the polling passed off peacefully.

Of the total 2,41, 855 voters, 1,87,527 voters exercised their franchise up to 5 pm (77.55%). Meanwhile Congress candidate Palvai Sravathi and BJP candidate Komatireddy Rajgopal Reddy met Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao to register a complaint about fake news. The Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) Viksas Raj said that appropriate action would be initiated against those circulating such fake news.

The bypoll for the Munugode Assembly segment was necessitated following the resignation of Congress MLA Komatireddy Rajagopal Reddy, who later joined BJP and contested on BJP ticket.

Over 52.38 per cent polling was registered in the by-poll in Mokama and Gopalganj assembly constituencies in Bihar. According to chief electoral officer H R Srinivasa, no incidents of violence were reported. The results are crucial for both parties as a by-election is being held for the first time after the formation of the RJD-led grand alliance government in Bihar. It will be interesting to see whether RJD and BJP retain the seats in the by-election they had won in 2020 assembly polls. The by-election was necessitated following disqualification of RJD MLA from Mokama Anant Singh after his conviction in an Arms Act case and death of sitting BJP legislator from Gopalganj Subash Singh after prolonged illness. The wives of both former lawmakers are contesting the election.

In Uttar Pradesh, the election to Gola Gokarannath assembly constituency saw moderate voting with 55.68 percent voter turnout. According to the state election commission, 441 booths were set up at 222 polling stations for 3.91 lakh registered voters for Thursday voting. The seat fell vacant after the death of BJP's sitting MLA Arvind Giri. Congress and BSP had not fielded their candidates this time. In Maharashtra, the by-poll to Andheri East constituency saw 31.74 percent turnout of voters. The bypoll was necessitated following the sudden death of Shiv Sena MLA Ramesh Latke in May. The bypoll is crucial for the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) alliance as it is the first election after the revolt led by Chief Minister Eknath Shinde and other MLAs.

The by-election to Adampur Assembly segment in Haryana saw a voter turnout of over 75 per cent.

Jaishankar to visit Moscow amid shadow of Ukraine war

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

DESPITE the conflict in Ukraine dragging and constant pressure from Western nations "to curtail tes with Moscow", India has affirmed its relationship with Russia. There is strong bilateral trade between the two nations and in a bid to bolster this, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar will visit Moscow next week (November 7 to 8).

He will meet his counterpart, Sergei Lavrov, and also the trade minister and Deputy Prime Minister of the Russian Federation. Jaishankar and Lavrov met four times in 2021. Besides, Prime Minister Modi and other senior ministers like Defence Minister Rajnath Singh have met their Russian counterparts regularly.

Russia announced Jaishankar's visit last week.

"The external affairs minister will meet his counterpart, Sergey Lavrov, the foreign minister of Russia. Discussions are expected to cover the entire range of bilateral issues as well as exchange of views on various regional and international developments," MEA Spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said at a media briefing. "The external affairs minister will also meet Deputy Prime Minister of the Russian Federation and Minister of Trade and Industry Denis Manturov, his counterpart for the India-Russia Inter-Governmental Commission on Trade, Economic, Scientific, Technological and Cultural Cooperation (IRIGC-TEC)," Bagchi said.

Kerala, Andhra, Punjab top school performance index

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

KERALA and Andhra Pradesh are among the top seven best-performing states and Union Territories on school education along with Punjab, Chandigarh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, and Rajasthan, according to the latest report by the Union Ministry of Education on Thursday.

Tamil Nadu, which was also in this category last year, has slipped, according to the report of the Performance Grading Index (PGI) 2020-21, a unique evidence-based, comprehensive analysis of school education systems across the Indian states and Union Territories.

"A total of 7 states and UTs, including Kerala, Punjab, Chandigarh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Rajasthan, and Andhra Pradesh, have attained Level 2 (score 901-950) in 2020-21 as compared to none in 2017-18," the report said.

Gujarat, Rajasthan and Andhra Pradesh are the new entrants to the highest level of any state so far.

Tamil Nadu has been graded in Level 3 (851-900) in 2020-21, a notch below last year when it had found a place in Level 2 along with Kerala, Punjab, Chandigarh, Andaman and Nicobar. The states were graded on different band levels, starting from 951-1000 or Level 1 score, which none of the states or Union Territories scored, to 550 or Level 10 (0-550), which was the lowest level and again, no state or UT scored so low.

The grading system was introduced in 2017-18, and no state has appeared at Level 1 so far. The report said that a total of 27 states and UTs had improved their total PGI score in 2020-21 as compared to 2019-20

Top 7 attain Level 2

According to report, a total of 7 states and UTs, including Kerala, Punjab, Chandigarh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Rajasthan, and Andhra Pradesh, have attained Level 2 (score 901-950) in 2020-21 as compared to none in 2017-18

In Level 3, 12 states and union territories attained this score. These are — Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Puducherry, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu, Haryana, Tamil Nadu, Himachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Karnataka, West Bengal, Lakshadweep, Delhi and Odisha. Arunachal Pradesh was the only state which appeared in Level 7 (651-700).

The report highlighted that the most significant performer in 2020-21 is Ladakh, a newly formed union territory, which attained Level 4 in 2020-21, jumping from Level 10 in 2019-20.

The Department of School Education and Literacy, Ministry of Education, has devised PGI for states and UTs to provide insights and data-driven mechanisms on the performance and achievements of the success of school education across all States/UTs.

School dropout, new enrolment both on rise, finds new study

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

PRIMARY students continue to drop out, enrollments of new children went up while the strength of junior school teachers came down in India, according to the latest findings of a comprehensive national education evaluation.

The Unified District Information System for Education Plus (UDISE+) report said that the dropout rate among primary students went up from 0.8 per cent in 2020-21 to 1.45 per cent in 2021-22.

The report said that more than 8 lakh new girl students enrolled in the year 2021-22, while the number of students enrolled under SC, ST, OBC and Children with Special Needs (CWSN) increased.

The rate for drop out for upper primary students spiked from 1.9 to 3.02 per cent, said the report, which provides a comprehensive study that provides information about enrollment and dropout rates of school students, the number of teachers and infrastructural facilities like toilets, buildings, electricity, hand wash facilities etc. But at the same time, enrolment of students across all the sections from primary to higher secondary went up by 0.95 crores in the same period to stand at 26.52 crores, out of which 13.28 crore were boys and 12.28 crore girls.

Mallya's counsel says unable to represent him

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

FUGITIVE Vijay Mallya's advocate on Thursday told the Supreme Court that he doesn't wish to continue as his counsel since Mallya was 'untraceable' and 'unresponsive'. Acceding to counsel's request, a bench of Justice DY Chandrachud and Hima Kohli asked his counsel to supply to court's registry, Mallya's email ID and London address to be supplied within one week.

The lawyer had sought discharge in a plea preferred by former liquor baron seeking a stay on the confiscation of properties owned by him and his relatives. In his plea he had requested for directing to not attach any properties other than that of Kingfisher airlines. The plea had come up for hearing nearly four months after the Supreme Court had awarded him four months jail sentence the business in a contempt case and had also imposed fine of ₹2,000 on him. Mallay is the prime accused in the 9000 crore bank loan case that had involved his defunct Kingfisher airline.

According to the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971, a person may be punished with simple imprisonment of up to six months, or with a fine up to ₹2,000, or both for contempt of court. The top court had directed that Mallya and the beneficiaries under the said transactions relating to USD 40 million shall be bound to deposit the amount received along with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum with the recovery officer concerned within four weeks. It had said in case the amount is not deposited, the recovery officer concerned shall be entitled to take appropriate proceedings for recovery of money and the Government of India and all agencies concerned shall extend assistance and complete cooperation. It said in case the fine amount of ₹2,000 is not deposited within the stipulated time, Mallya shall undergo a further sentence of two months.

SC takes anti-Sikh riots SIT report on record

The SC took on record the summarised report filed by a Court-constituted SIT headed by Justice SN Dhingra in relation to the 1984 anti-Sikh riots case. To enable the court to peruse the summary report, a bench of Justices AS Bopanna and PS Narasimha directed for listing the pleas after two weeks. "Summary report filed by the SIT is taken on board. Pending applications be also noted and indicated by the Registry," the bench said.

'Extra-judicial confession can't be sole proof'

The Supreme Court on Thursday said when an extra-judicial confession is not duly proved or corroborated by any other reliable evidence, the conviction could not be based solely on such "weak piece" of evidence. The apex court set aside the July 2016 judgement of the Madras High Court which had confirmed the verdict of a trial court convicting and awarding life term to five persons in a murder case.

Apex Court affirms death penalty in Red Fort attack case

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday affirmed the death penalty of LeT terrorist Mohammad Arif alias Ashfaq in the 2000 Red Fort attack case in which three persons, including two Army jawans, were killed.

A bench of Chief Justice U U Lalit and judges S R Bhat and Bela M Trivedi rejected the review petition against top court's 2011 ruling, saying the aggravating circumstances evident from the record and the fact that there was a direct attack on the unity, integrity and sovereignty of India, completely outweigh any other factors in favour of Arif. "There is nothing on record which can be taken to be a mitigating circumstance in favour of the review petitioner. The suggestion that there is a possibility of retribution and rehabilitation, is not made out from and supported by any material on record," the bench said in its order. Arif was arrested in 2000 under various provisions of IPC, Arms Act, 1959, Foreigners Act, 1946 and Explosive Substances Act, 1908.

US, India join hands to work for Vadodara's civic makeover

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

US Embassy and US Treasury officials have collaborated with India's Ministry of Housing and Urban Development and Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) to procure municipal bonds to develop the city of Vadodara.

"This is Vadodara's first municipal bond that will provide funds for infrastructure in Vadodara. A written case study will also be published sharing lessons learned from Vadodara's bond issuance that will benefit other Indian cities issuing their own municipal bonds in the future," a statement from the US Embassy said.

Vadodara's bond, which took place in March of this year, was oversubscribed by 10 times (₹1,007 crore in bids received from 33 bidders) and was priced at a low yield of just 7.15 per cent. Vadodara is the second Indian city to issue a municipal bond with assistance from the US Treasury Department's Office of Technical Assistance, following Pune's bond issuance in 2017.

Glorifying corrupt not good for India, says PM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday warned against the culture of glorifying the guilty in spite of them being jailed is not good for Indian society.

Taking dig at the Opposition, Modi said that "corrupt people are glorified" despite being proven guilty.

Speaking at the launch of the Central Vigilance Commission's Complaint Management System portal, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said, "Even today, some people give arguments in favour of the corrupt who have been found guilty. It is very necessary for such people, such forces to be made aware of their duty by society. In this, concrete action taken by your department has a big role. There is no need for institutions, which work against corruption and the corrupt, to be defensive in any way," PM Modi said. The CVC is an autonomous anti-corruption government body which is holding its Vigilance Awareness Week which began on Monday and will run till 6 November. The launch of the portal is part of it and the theme this year is 'corruption-free India for a developed nation'.

Prime Minister pointed that the institutions need not work with a political agenda and it's the government's job to free the common man from the problems they are facing, he said.

The week-long drive is a nationwide essay competition on the theme for students. The five winners of the essay competition were awarded by modi at the event.

KEEP PSYCHOLOGICAL TRAUMA AWAY FROM YOUR CHILD

Do what you can, but ensure your child does not suffer psychological trauma in childhood. A study led by researchers at the Hospital del Mar Medical Research Institute, published in the journal European Archives of Psychiatry and Clinical Neuroscience has found childhood psychological trauma can lead to a three-fold increase in the risk of suffering mental disorders in adult life. The study which involved 93,000 cases showed a direct link between paediatric psychological trauma and adverse mental disorders in grown-up years.

DRONE SECURITY LOOPHOLE ALLOWS SEE-THROUGH-WALL CAPABILITY

Researchers from University of Waterloo have developed a device which can be powered by a drone and can use WiFi networks to see through walls. The discovery is a boon to the security establishment as it alerts them to the existence of such a loophole which can allow attackers to use this method to launch attacks on sensitive targets. The device has been named Wi-Peep. It can use the WiFi networks of inhabitants of the buildings it is spying on to "peep" through opaque walls. Wi-Peep can do this even if the Wi-Fi network is password-protected. It sends messages to a device as it flies and then measures the response time on each, enabling it to identify the device's location. The researchers realised that anyone with the right expertise can easily create a similar device to violate a security risk in high-security zones.

GET MOSQUITO-BITTEN OR NOT: SKIN DECIDES

If you are wondering why you get bitten by mosquitoes more than those around you, here's the answer: Mosquitoes targeting you depend on your skin microbiota, or the number of living microorganisms and fatty acids on your skin. This dispels hitherto popular theories why mosquitoes make a meal out of you more than others. Researchers from Rockefeller's Laboratory of Neurogenetics and Behavior, who performed their study mainly on the female Aedes Aegypti mosquitoes — the primary vectors for dengue, Zika, yellow fever, and chikungunya — found that fatty acids from the skin may create odours that mosquitoes get attracted to. Scientists have considered genetically rendering the Aedes Aegypti's olfactory system (which enables the sense of smell) useless. But that has proven extremely difficult due to the highly complex olfactory system. This complexity is why mosquitoes persist on going after you despite you using repellents over time. They have alternate ways of smelling you out if your skin is conducive to be their target. The best is to be properly covered...

EC declares 2-phase Guj poll dates, counting on Dec 8

Says polling for 89 seats under 1st phase will take place on Dec 1 and voting for remaining 93 seats scheduled on December 5

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Gujarat assembly elections will be held in two phases. The polling for 89 seats under the first phase will take place on December 1 and voting for the remaining 93 seats is scheduled on December 5, announced Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar on Thursday. The counting of votes will be on December 8 along with that of Himachal Pradesh.

On October 14, the Election Commission (EC) declared the date for elections in Himachal but didn't announce Gujarat election schedule.

Dismissing the criticism for intentionally delaying the poll announcement for Gujarat, allowing the ruling BJP to roll out more welfare schemes before the model code of conduct comes into effect, Kumar stated that the Commission had to take multiple factors into consideration including weather, last date of the term of the assembly and the number of days the model code of conduct should be in force.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has been visiting Gujarat to unveil a slew of schemes and lay the foundation for various projects ahead of the polls.

The term of the Gujarat assembly ends on February 18, 2023 and the elections have been announced 110 days in advance, Kumar said.

"Delay is also because of the recent unfortunate incident (Morbi bridge collapse). There was state mourning in the state till Wednesday and there are also multiple factors," Kumar added.

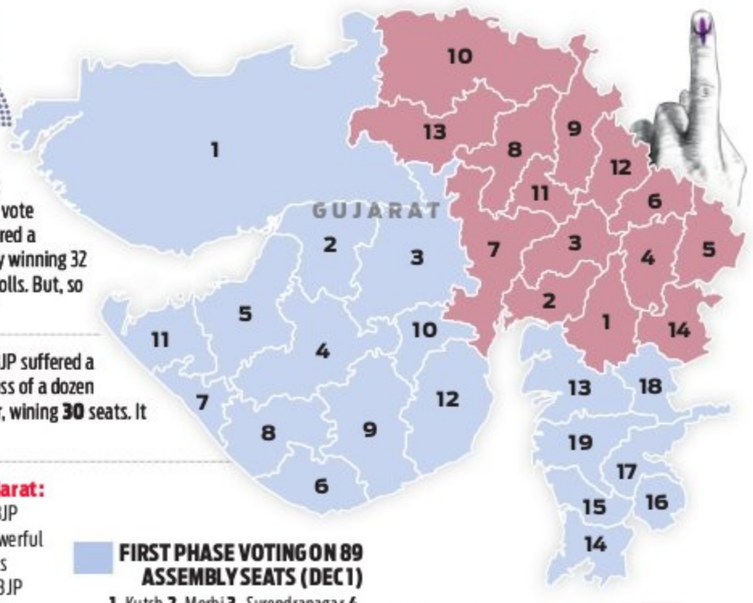
The notification for the assembly elections will be issued on November 5 and November 10 for the first and the second phases respectively. The last date for filing of nominations will be November 14 and November 17 for the first and second phase respectively. The nomination papers will be scrutinised on November 15 and November 18. The last date for withdrawal of nominations for the first phase is November 17 and for the second phase it is November 21.

These elections along with a few more in other states in 2023 are being seen as crucial in the run-up to the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

BATTLE FOR SAFFRON STRONGHOLD

Zone-wise result of 2017 Assembly polls

Total seats 182



North Gujarat: 50 seats. BJP had over 50% vote share, improving it by 1%. The Congress also improved its vote share by 2% to poll 42%. Others suffered a loss of 4%. BJP maintained its sway by winning 32 seats, the same figure as in the 2012 polls. But, so did Congress, securing 21 seats.

Saurashtra & Kutch: 54 seats. BJP suffered a major loss, winning only 23 seats, a loss of a dozen seats in 2012 polls. Congress did better, wining 30 seats. It had won 16 seats in 2012.

South Gujarat: 35 seats. Marginal loss for BJP, with the party winning 25 of 35 seats in the region. In 2012 it won 28 seats. The Congress gained a little in 2017, improving its tally from 6 to 10.

Central Gujarat: 40 seats. BJP was more powerful than Congress winning 25. BJP won only 20 seats in 2012. Congress suffered a loss of five seats, winning 13 this time, five less than in 2012.

Pressure on BJP to better its '17 Guj scorecard

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Ahmedabad

THE BJP is under pressure to do better than its 2017 performance when the party got a simple majority with an increase in the vote share. Despite a decrease in the number of seats, the party retained a simple majority in the 182-member House. The vote share and the number of seats of the Congress increased from the previous election in 2012. This was the highest number of seats won by Congress in last 32 years (after the 1985 election, in which Congress won 149 seats).

The BJP, which has been in power in Gujarat for 27 years, still got nearly 50% of the votes, while the Congress got 41.44%. In 2012, the BJP won 115 seats and 47.85% votes.

The Congress tally was 61 seats and 38.93% votes. In 2017, except the BJP and the Congress, there was virtually no other party in the race.

Nothing wrong if AAP supports Cong: Solanki

Former Union minister in the UPA government and former president of the Gujarat Pradesh Congress Committee (GPCC) Bharatsinh Solanki kicked over the beehive by saying that there is nothing wrong in taking support from the Aam Admi Party (AAP). Solanki on Wednesday said that Congress had "no problem" if AAP were to extend its support to the grand-old party. At Radhanpur in Patan district, Solanki said "Be it Shankersinh Vaghela, Chhotubhai Vasava (of Bharatiya Tribal Party), NCP or anyone else, if the AAP gives support to the Congress, we will welcome it. We have to fight against a fascist communal party like the BJP, which has grown to be anti-public."

Varun to make matters worse for Hardik?

Former Congress leader and Patidar figure Hardik Patel has faced a series of difficulties after joining the BJP. Now, he has found a political rival in fellow BJP leader Varun Patel. It is known that Hardik has pressed the party brass for a ticket from his home town Viramgam. Sources now reveal that Varun, once a close friend of Hardik, has also sought to go into poll fray from the constituency. The two Patidar leaders had a race to outdo each other when they both met Union Home Minister Amit Shah recently – vying for the ticket. A flagbearer for Patidar movement, Varun had joined BJP at an early stage.

Kejriwal to announce AAP CM face today

The AAP, which is trying its luck for the second time in the Gujarat Assembly polls, will announce its chief ministerial candidate on Friday – on the lines of Punjab. Party national convenor Arvind Kejriwal, in Gujarat on Friday, will announce the CM face. On October 29, he had notably asked voters, "Whom they would like to see as CM." He also introduced a hotline to seek public opinion on the same. The Delhi CM had said, "We will take a decision after seeking public approval on the CM pick. Prior to Punjab elections, we had asked voters for proposing names for the CM post. And people in Punjab chose the name of Bhagwant Mann."

Back to basics for BJP in Himachal polls

HARPREET BAJWA @ Dharamsala

THE BJP's has coined a laboured slogan for the Himachal Pradesh polls due November 12: 'Riwaaz Badal Raha Hai' (the tradition is changing). Two factors have apparently led the ruling party to shift its focus a bit: the party is straining itself to layer the Midas touch of PM Modi with a sliver of its own performance. Second, the party wants to return to power – an ambition pinned against the history of the state where the BJP and the Congress have taken turns to rule. So, will the BJP tactic work?

If the ground situation is any indication, local issues are driving the poll narrative. The issues at stake are: Old pension scheme, demands for a Central university, rehabilitation of Pong Dam oustees, railway connectivity, a high court bench in Dharamsala, bifurcation of Kangra, the state's most politically significant district comprising 15 assembly segments, into four districts besides price rise and unemployment.

In absence of private jobs, the number of state government employees is 2.5 lakh. Nearly 1.5 lakh of them are covered under the New Pension Scheme, which allegedly ignores social security post-retirement. The demand has a huge financial implication as a reversion to the old would entail an outgo of about Rs 700 crore – a massive amount for a small state that has limited revenue generation avenues.

New Pension Scheme Employees Association (NPSEA) vice president Kangra, Narayan Singh says every third employee is in favour of the OPS. The employees had gone on a chain hunger strike for about two months, suspending their stir after the model code of conduct came in, said Singh.

The Congress is supporting the employee unions agitating for the OPS. In a recent meeting of government employees in Kangra, employees took a pledge that they and their family members would vote for the Congress. The Congress believes that there are at least 2,000 employees in each assembly constituency who are in favour of OPS. "This chunk of voters could be a game changer," said a party leader.

The other key issue is the state of the Central University headquartered in Dharamsala, It is operating from a temporary campus at Shahpur, Kangra, pending the construction of two permanent campuses, at Dehra and Dharamsala.

Students complain of commuting problems because the campus has not been fully constructed and hostels are located too far. "I am doing my MBA from the university. Our hostels are located far off. The Bus service barely exists forcing us to miss our classes. The entire campus should be in one place," says Rahul Singh.

Another student Avinash Chandel says the Modi factor did have an impact in the last assembly and Lok Sabha polls. This time, however, it could work to an extent as local issues like road and rail link, health, education and jobs appear more important.

RTI activist Atul Bharadwaj says people of Kangra have given a new slogan: 'Modi se bair nahin, Jai Ram teri khair nahi (no enmity with Modi, but we won't spare Jai Ram Thakur)'.

There is a plan to bifurcate Kangra, the state's most politically significant district, which comprises 15 assembly segments, into four districts even as the contentious issue has backfired in the past.

Lawyer takes out pistol, points at judge in Bihar courtroom, arrested

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

A court in Bihar's Muzaffarpur witnessed a high voltage drama on Wednesday when an advocate allegedly brandished a pistol and intimidated a judge in the courtroom.

Later, the advocate was arrested with his licensed pistol.

The incident took place in the court of additional district judge DK Pradhan in Muzaffarpur civil court on Wednesday when the advocate Pankaj Mahant alias Pankaj Kumar reportedly took out his pistol and targeted it at the judge during the hearing of a case.

Sources said that the security guards of the judge overpowered the advocate after the judge called the police to his courtroom.

Members of the district bar association, present in the court, resisted police personnel from arresting their colleague and got united against the judge.

A case under relevant sections of the Arms Act and section 186 (obstructing public servant in discharge of public functions) of the IPC was registered against the advocate, the police said.

Later, the advocate was produced before the chief judicial magistrate who sent him to judicial custody.

The lawyer in his defence contended that he was perturbed over the judge's behaviour of passing 'unusual' judgments in cases being pleaded by him. He said that he had also lodged a complaint with the district judge against the ADJ.

The advocate alleged that security guards took away his coat, band and his licensed pistol.

He said that he was forced to sit in the court for several hours and later a false case was registered against him.

This is not an isolated case. Earlier, two police officers were arrested on the charges of threatening a judicial officer of Madhubani with dire consequences with his service revolver in the courtroom. Earlier, two police officers were arrested on the charges of threatening a judicial officer of Madhubani with dire consequences with his service revolver in the courtroom. The police officers-Gopal Prasad, station house officer of Ghoghardiha police station and sub-inspector Abhimanyu Kumar—were unhappy with the manner judicial officer had remarked against the then SP Satya Prakash during hearing of a criminal case last year.

PIL for Hindi as official language in J&K rejected

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Jammu and Kashmir Ladakh High Court has refused to entertain a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) seeking to make Hindi as official language in the two Union Territories.

A division bench of the High Court comprising Chief Justice Ali Mohammad Magrey and Justice Vinod Chatterji Koul while hearing the PIL said the subject of the PIL squarely comes within the domain and powers of the executive. "The subject matter of the PIL squarely comes within the domain and powers of the executive, therefore, we dispose of this PIL with direction to the petitioner to approach the competent authority/forum for seeking the relief as claimed in plea," the bench stated.

The PIL was filed by one Jagdev Singh seeking recognition of Hindi language as the official language in the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir as well as in the Union Territory of Ladakh in tune with the mandate of Articles 343 and 251 of the Constitution of India.

Prior to abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A and bifurcation of J&K state by Centre on August 5, 2019, the official language of the erstwhile J&K State was Urdu and all the official records including Revenue, Police, Acts, and Rules made by the Legislative Assembly are either in Urdu or in English.

On Hindi Diwas in September this year, Home Minister Amit Shah had said Hindi should be made as an national language of India as it unites the whole country in a thread of unity.

Official language of erstwhile J&K was Urdu

Prior to abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A and bifurcation of J&K on August 5, 2019, the official language of the erstwhile state was Urdu and all the official records, including Revenue, Police, Acts and Rules made by the Legislative Assembly, are either in Urdu or in English.

After giving summon a miss, Soren dares ED, says 'catch me if you can'

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

CHIEF Minister Hemant Soren on Thursday dared the Enforcement Directorate to arrest him if he had done anything wrong, instead of issuing a summons.

Addressing a gathering of JMM workers, the CM also claimed that this government would complete its term and that nobody could remove it from power. "Today, I have been invited as a chief guest at a tribal dance festival in Chhattisgarh and ED has summoned me to answer its questions. If I have really done anything wrong, then come and arrest me if you can...why this inquiry? said the CM.

Soren, however, has sought three weeks' time to appear before the ED. Soren said some "outside gangs" were active in the state which did not let the Adivasi and 'Moolwasi' stand on their feet.

"We have identified those gangs and given them a befitting reply. Only Jharkhandis will rule the state," said Soren. "They will teach such people a lesson," he added.

Hemant Soren and Bhupesh Baghel in Raipur on Thursday | EXPRESS

"I must make it clear that I am not worried at all...whenever such circumstances arise, the JMM moves forward with double the strength," he said.

The CM sought to project his party JMM as the sole representative of traibal communities. "Some people have always tried to defame the Adivasis, Dalits and other disadvantaged people," he said.

In his speech, Soren also threatened the Centre with "dire consequences" if any attempt was made to destabilize the democratically elected government in Jharkhand.

Referring to the security being tightened at the ED zonal office and the state BJP Office in Ranchi, Soren questioned, whether they were "afraid of the people of Jharkhand."

According to Soren, those who came to the state in the name of finding livelihood in the mines and industries were now trying to take possession of the state.

Soren also alleged the BJP was of framing his workers in fake cases and putting them in jail. "But they will come out very soon. "You can call Sonia and Rahul Gandhi, but my strength is that you cannot call a chief Minister," said Soren.

The CM also warned the tribals living in Gujarat to take a pledge that not a single seat goes to BJP in the polls.

3-day C'garh nat'l tribal dance festival concludes

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

A scintillating three-day National Tribal Dance Festival concluded on Thursday. The tribal artists and troupes were awarded for their exceptional performances.

Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren, who attended the closing ceremony as chief guest along with his Chhattisgarh counterpart Bhupesh Baghel, presented the awards to the participants in the dance festival held at the Science College ground in Raipur.

Two themes have been earmarked for the performers—'Tribal Dances on Harvesting' and 'Tribal Traditions and Rituals' with the three awards given in each category.

"The tribal culture gives the world a message to unite and not divide people. Along with the Chhattisgarh culture, the traditions of other states are now known globally through such dance festivals organised in Raipur," said Baghel.

Soren congratulated his Chhattisgarh counterpart calling the dance festival an extraordinary occasion for the tribal artists. "There are many challenges we are facing but this is not a political forum nor the moment to discuss those things," said Soren.

The festival saw the lively participation of over 1,200 tribal artists from 10 countries, 28 states and six union territories who exhibited their unique culture, traditions and lifestyle.

On the concluding day there were performances on Karma dance of Madhya Pradesh, Jhinjhi folk dance by Tharu tribe of Uttar Pradesh. Jhinjhi dance expresses devotion to tribal deity, Jhinjhi, especially in the months of Bhado and Kwar. Gendi dance of Chhattisgarh, believed to be as old as Ramayana era, was performed on Harmonium and Mandhar beats. The people were enthralled with the Rathwa dance of Gujarat and Gaddi dance of Himachal Pradesh.

Top Pak leaders, military condemn attack on Imran

Assailant says he wanted to kill ex-PM as he was misleading public

ISLAMABAD

Supporters of Pakistan's former prime minister Imran Khan, take part in a protest against the assassination attempt on Khan, in Rawalpindi on Thursday | AFP

PAKISTAN'S top leadership, political leaders and the military on Thursday strongly condemned the assassination attempt on ex-PM Imran Khan by an unidentified gunman during his protest march demanding snap polls.

Khan, 70, was shot and wounded in the leg in an attack on his protest march in the eastern city of Wazirabad in Punjab province. He was out of danger in what his party claimed was an 'assassination attempt.'

President Arif Alvi expressed relief that Khan survived the attack. "He is injured with a few bullets in his leg and is expected to be in a non-critical condition. This attack is ... cowardly. May Allah bless them and all the injured," he tweeted.

Expressing his shock over the incident, PM Shehbaz Sharif said, "I condemn the incident of firing on...Imran Khan in the strongest words. I pray for the recovery and health of PTI chairman & other injured people." He also ordered Interior Minister to submit an immediate report on the incident.

The Pakistan Army has also issued a statement condemning the firing attack. "Firing incident during Long March near Gujranwala is highly condemnable," the Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR), the media wing of the military, tweeted.

Defence Minister Khawaja Asif said, "I believe today's incident shows the deterioration in our politics. The entire nation is condemning this incident."

Meanwhile, the man who attacked Imran Khan said he tried to assassinate the former Pakistan prime minister because 'he was misleading the public' and could not tolerate it. The gunman was immediately nabbed by security officers. The clip of his confessional statement, shows a man in his late twenties.

"He (Imran) was misleading the people and I could not bear watching it. So I killed him, attempted to kill him," the suspect said in a video statement. "I tried my best to kill him. I wanted to kill him (Khan) only and no one else," he confessed.

"I decided to kill him today. This idea came to me when Khan started his long march. I am alone and nobody is with me...I decided to kill him because when a call for prayer was given, songs were being played (from the container)," he added.

The gunman admitted that he has been not affiliated to any political or terror outfits. PTI

Bolsonaro asks backers to unblock the roads

SAO PAULO

BRAZIL'S outgoing President Jair Bolsonaro asked participants in what he said were 'legitimate' protests to 'unblock the roads' and demonstrate elsewhere as they push for military intervention to keep him in power.

The far-right leaders' supporters are rallying in front of military installations in Brazil's major cities and have blocked highways in more than half the country's states.

The demonstrators, unwilling to accept the results of Bolsonaro's Sunday election defeat to leftist ex-president Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, have now clogged autoroutes and caused nationwide disruptions for three straight days.

Supporters of President Jair Bolsonaro protest his defeat in the presidential runoff election, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil | AP

"I want to make an appeal to them: Unblock the roads," Bolsonaro said late Wednesday. The blockages do "not seem to me to be part of legitimate demonstrations."

"Other demonstrations that are taking place throughout Brazil in squares...are part of the democratic game. They are welcome," he added.

Meanwhile, President-elect Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva's team arrived in Brazil's capital on Thursday to begin the process of transfering power amid dwindling protests by supporters of Jair Bolsonaro.

Vice President-elect Geraldo Alckmin arrived at Congress accompanied by the coordinator of da Silva's campaign and several lawmakers from the leftist Worker's Party. They began by meeting with the senator responsible for the government's 2023 budget proposal.

Da Silva's team met with Sen. Marcelo Castro, who is responsible for the budget bill.

"We have a tight schedule, and it's complicated," Castro told reporters before the meeting with Alckmin. "It is easier if the new government proposes something." Agencies

FIRE, FURY AND FLOPS: N KOREA'S BANNED WEAPONS PROGRAMMES

North Korea's nuclear ambitions date back to 1953, when the Korean War ended in a stalemate. In the 1960s, Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea received nuclear technology and hardware from the Soviet Union to create a nuclear energy programme. Here is a timeline of North Korea's banned nuclear weapons and ballistic missile programmes

1984: LONGER RANGE

Pyongyang carries out its first test of Scud-style Hwasong missiles in 1984

It begins developing longer-range missiles from 1987, including the Taepodong-1 (2,500 km) and Taepodong-2 (6,700 km)

The programme receives a major boost, possibly including warhead design blueprints, from rogue Pakistani nuclear scientist Abdul Qadeer Khan in the 1990s

2006-13: NUCLEAR TESTS

North Korea ends the moratorium in 2005, blaming the 'hostile' US policy under President George W. Bush, and carries out its first nuclear test on October 9, 2006

A second underground nuclear test is carried out in May 2009, several times more powerful than the first

Kim Jong Un succeeds as leader of North Korea after the death of his father Kim Jong Il in 2011, and oversees a third nuclear test in 2013

2016: REACHING JAPANESE WATERS

Pyongyang claims a fourth underground nuclear test in January 2016 is a hydrogen bomb

In August, it launches a ballistic missile directly into Japanese-controlled waters for the first time. It then successfully tests another submarine-launched ballistic missile (SLBM) the same month

2017: 'FIRE AND FURY'

Pyongyang launches multiple ballistic missiles between February and May that land in the Sea of Japan, also known as the East Sea

On July 4, North Korea announces it successfully tested an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) capable of reaching Alaska

Then-president Donald Trump threatens Pyongyang with 'fire and fury' over its missile programme

2019-2021: NEW WEAPONS, NEW TENSIONS

Tensions mount again in 2021 with North Korea carrying out a number of weapons tests, including a claimed SLBM launch, another launched from a train, and what it says is a hypersonic glide missile

2022: 'MONSTER' MISSILE

Pyongyang fires an ICBM on March 24, which it claims is the new Hwasong-17 that analysts dub a 'monster missile'. Washington and Seoul suspect it was an older Hwasong-15

On October 4, Pyongyang fires an intermediate-range ballistic missile (IRBM) over Japan for the first time in five years, prompting Tokyo to issue a rare warning for people to take shelter.

Pyongyang fires more than 20 missiles on November 2—including one that lands close to S Korean waters

UAE Prez looks forward to improve relations

INDONESIA: UAE President Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan (MBZ) lauded Indonesia's huge potential in several areas and expressed his keenness to boost relations between the two nations. "I can see that many areas can still be improved between the two countries, especially in the technology sector," President MBZ said. He also said that in the next 25 years, Indonesia will become a great country as it is supported by stability which in time will become the most crucial factor for the nation's progress. He also talked about Indonesia's hard-working workforce and looked forward to improve ties in the employment sector. MBZ also praised Indonesian President Joko Widodo. "I really respect him because he is truly a sincere leader and wants to advance the nation and its people," he said during a bilateral meeting with Vice President Ma'ruf Amin in Abu Dhabi

Moscow strikes damage Kyiv nuclear plant lines

KYIV

UKRAINE'S nuclear operator said on Thursday that Russian shelling damaged power lines connecting Europe's largest nuclear power plant to the Ukrainian grid, leaving the plant again relying on emergency diesel generators.

As fighting in Ukraine has damaged power lines and electrical substations, the Zaporizhzhia Nuclear Power Plant has repeatedly operated on backup generators to cool the reactors and keep other safety systems running until regular power could be restored.

The generators have enough fuel to maintain the plant in southeastern Ukraine for just 15 days, state nuclear power company Energoatom said on its Telegram channel. "The countdown has begun," Energoatom said, noting it had limited possibilities to "maintain the ZNPP in a safe mode," raising fears of a potential nuclear disaster.

The International Atomic Energy Agency said on Thursday that the plant's latest switch to backup power further underlines "the extremely precarious nuclear safety and security situation at the facility and the urgent need to establish a protection zone around it."

The development "again demonstrates the plant's fragile and vulnerable situation," Rafael Grossi, DG of the UN nuclear watchdog, said. "Measures are needed to prevent a nuclear accident at the site. The establishment of a nuclear safety and security protection zone is urgently needed," Grossi added. The latest loss of electricty overnight came when Russia shelled two power lines that were connecting the plant to the Ukrainian grid in "an attempt to reconnect nuclear plant to the Russian power system," Energoatom alleged. AP

SCARE AS N KOREA MISSILES LAND IN JAPAN SEA

WASHINGTON

NORTH Korea fired at least six missiles into the sea on Thursday, including an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) that triggered evacuation warnings and halted trains in northern Japan.

The US and South Korea jointly warned North Korea on Thursday that use of any kind of nuclear weapon against Seoul or other regional allies would result in the end of Kim Jong Un's regime.

Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin and South Korean Defense Minister Lee Jong-sup, after meeting Thursday at the Pentagon, released a joint statement saying they 'strongly condemned' North Korea's escalating military flexing, including ballistic missile test launches and coastal artillery.

Any use of nuclear weapons, including lower-yield tactical nuclear devices against Seoul or other regional allies such as Japan, would "result in the end of Kim Jong Un regime by the overwhelming and decisive response of the alliance," Lee said at a joint news conference with Austin.

In its launches Thursday, North Korea fired an intercontinental ballistic missile, drawing swift condemnation from the White House, which accused Pyongyang of "destabilising the security situation in the region."

The US and South Korea announced that the 'Vigilant Storm' military exercise, which was scheduled to run through Friday, would be extended indefinitely.

Japanese Defense Minister Yasukazu Hamada said at least two ballistic missiles fired by North Korea showed a possibly 'irregular' trajectory. This suggests the missiles were the North's highly maneuverable, nuclear-capable KN-23 missile, which was modeled on Russia's Iskander missile. AP

Canada to officialy mark Hindu Heritage Month in Nov

TORONTO

CANADA has for the first time officially celebrated November as its national Hindu Heritage Month to acknowledge the significant contributions of the Hindu community in the multi-cultural country's growth story.

Chandra Arya, a ruling Liberal Party MP, initiated a private members motion in May this year to mark November as the Hindu Heritage Month (HHM) which was later unanimously passed in the House of Commons on September 29.

Taking to Twitter, Arya wrote on November 1, "Today I marked the historic beginning of Canada's national Hindu Heritage Month by raising a flag with Hindu sacred symbol Aum on Parliament Hill.

HHM provides an opportunity to recognise the contributions of 830,000 Hindu-Canadians to our country & of Hindu Heritage to mankind."

The multi-cultural country also marks heritage month of other faiths which includes April as Sikh Heritage Month, May as Canadian Jewish Heritage Month and October as Canadian Islamic History Month. PTI

Vodafone Idea loss widens to ₹7,596 crore

Telecom operator's net loss has been over ₹7,000 crore in four of the five quarters

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

HIGHLY distress telecom firm Vodafone Idea (Vi) on Thursday reported an increase in its quarterly net loss to ₹7,596 crore for the second quarter of financial year 2022-23 (Q2FY23) as against ₹7,132 crore loss it reported in the year ago quarter.

Except the last financial year's March quarter (Q4FY22) when the telco reported a net loss of ₹6,561 crore, Vi's net loss has been over ₹7,000 crore in four of the five quarters.

In contrast, Bharti Airtel net profit rose to ₹2,145 crore for the September quarter, while Reliance Jio Infocomm's net profit surged to ₹4,518 crore in the same quarter.

The telco's revenues during the quarter under review grew by 12.9% year-on-year to ₹10,614 crore. In Q2 of last financial year, the telco's revenue stood at ₹9,406 crore. Vi's operating margin slipped nearly 3% to 38.6% in Q2FY23 from 41.6% in Q1FY23. The positive take away for the earning report was improvement in Vi's ARPU, which edged up to ₹131 during Q2, from ₹128 in the previous quarter, and ₹109 in the same period last year. This, however, was much lower than the average revenue per user (ARPU) of Reliance Jio (₹177) and Bharti Airtel (₹190). Reduction in subscriber base continues to remain a big issue as the telco lost 6 million subscribers and its subscriber base came down to 234.4 million as of September 30, 2022, from over 240 million as of September 30, 2021.

Vodafone Idea's net worth worsened and stood at a negative ₹76,417 crore from negative ₹69,261 crore in the June quarter and negative ₹52,686 crore a year ago. The company informed that its gross debt as on September 30 stood at ₹2.2 lakh crore, which includes deferred spectrum payment dues of ₹1.4 lakh crore, adjusted gross revenue dues of ₹68,600 crore and debt of ₹15,080 crore.

Akshaya Moondra, CEO, Vodafone Idea, said, "Our board has recently approved issuance of Optionally Convertible Debentures amounting to ₹16 billion to ATC India."

Meta India head quits; to join rival Snap

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

META INDIA head Ajit Mohan has quit the company to join rival Snap. He will lead the Asia Pacific region for Snap, and will also be a part of the company's executive team.

"After almost 4 years leading Meta (Facebook) in India, I am stepping down from my role. I am grateful to the company for the amazing opportunity to lead its efforts in one of its most important countries," he said in a LinkedIn post.

"When I took on this role, my objective was to build a team and a company that would be a valuable ally to India and play a useful role in fuelling its economic and social transformation. This is exactly what we have managed to do in the last four years," he added.

Mohan has confirmed in the post that he is joining Snap. In an email to TNIE, Snap said, "Ajit Mohan is joining us from Meta where he most recently served as VP & Managing Director of India, and previously held executive roles across the region, including as founding CEO of Disney's Hotstar."

As President of APAC, Ajit will lead India, Australia & New Zealand, China, Japan, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and Korea businesses. He will provide in-market leadership, lead cross-functional efforts across the region, oversee local operations, and lead go-to-market strategy. He will report to Jerry Hunter, COO.

"We believe Ajit's leadership will enable us to accelerate growth across APAC, and we could not be more thrilled to have Ajit joining Snap team," Evan Spiegel, CEO, Snap Inc, said. Snapchat has grown fast in India, hitting 100 million monthly active users in one year ago, with partnerships with platforms like Flipkart and Zomato. Mohan's move comes at a time when there is an ongoing controversy between the firm and a news website over removal of certain Instagram posts. Meta has been growing in India, as recently it posted 74% rise in gross advertising revenues in the country.

Air India to invest big amount in AI Express

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

A day after acquiring 100% stake in AirAsia India, Air India managing director and CEO Campbell Wilson said they will be investing significantly to grow Air India Express' fleet, network, and market share in the coming months and years.

Air India, which now is owned by the salt-to-steel conglomerate Tata Group, is merging AirAsia India with Air India Express to form one single low-cost airline platform within Air India Group in about 12 months.

The new entity will be rebranded as Air India Express. "Bringing AirAsia India into our family and merging it with AI Express, will allow us to build a much stronger low-cost carrier . The two airlines' route networks are highly complementary and, operated together, feature 52 aircraft and a footprint of over 20 domestic and 13 global destinations," said Wilson in a note to the staff of AirAsia India on Thursday.

"The combined airline will eventually operate under the Air India Express name but will draw from the best of airlines,"

RBI panel meets to draft report for missing inflation target; no rate action

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE unscheduled meeting of the Reserve Bank of India's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) as expected did not result in any rate action.

The RBI in a statement informed the MPC discussed and drafted the report to be sent to the government to explain why it failed to maintain the inflation target.

The meeting was chaired by governor Shaktikanta Das and attended by all MPC members.

The meeting was called under Section 45ZN of the (RBI) Act, which specifically refers to failure to maintain inflation targets as the reason for calling a meeting.

The content of the letter/report drafted by the MPC is not known. The RBI Governor on Wednesday said the letter would be made public but not immediately.

Shaktikanta Das chairs MPC meeting

RBI in a statement said the MPC discussed and drafted the report to be sent to the government to explain why it failed to maintain the inflation target. The meeting was chaired by governor Shaktikanta Das and attended by all MPC members

The meeting was called to draft an explanation why the MPC failed to meet inflation target for three successive quarters. The MPC has the mandate to maintain inflation target in the 2-6% range. Retail inflation in January-March 2022 quarter was 6.3%, April-June quarter was 7.3% and July-September 2022 quarter was 6.9% (Provisional).

There were speculations that the MPC meeting might lead to some rate action as the same was scheduled just a day after the US Federal Reserve meeting. The US Federal Reserve on Wednesday increased the interest rate by 75 bps to a target range of 3.75%-4%, the highest level since January 2008.

"Given the RBI has missed inflation target zone for three consecutive quarters and law requiring RBI to provide explanation to the government, we think RBI will not keep even tighter vigil and hence tighten policy to levels where it is sure of meeting inflation targets and not pause prematurely on hope," says Akhil Mittal, senior fund manager, Tata Mutual Fund.

Cognizant introduces two appraisal cycles for staff, cuts revenue forecast

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

NASDAQ-listed IT services company Cognizant has introduced two merit cycles for employees. This move is to reduce attrition level in the company.

In an email to employees, Cognizant CEO Brian Humphries said, "We will move up next year's merit cycle to take effect April 1, 2023. That means eligible associates at levels up to Associate Director will have two merit increases in the space of six months."

For levels up to Associate Director, there will be two merit increases- October 1, 2022 and April 1, 2023. For directors and above, the company will increase merit effective January 1, 2023 and April 1, 2024. The longer timeframe between increases is a one-time occurrence till they align the cycles.

The company's trailing 12-month voluntary attrition for the September quarter stood at 29%, which is less than the previous quarter's 32%.

Cognizant has reported a 15.6% increase in net profit to $629 million for the third quarter ended September 2022, compared to $544 million in the year-ago period. The company follows the calendar year. Its revenues in the September quarter stood at $4.9 billion.

For the second time, the company has revised its 2022 revenue guidance. It revises full-year 2022 revenue growth guidance to 4.5%, or 7.0% in constant currency. This is lower than its previous guidance- 8.5-9.5%. The CEO said, "We underperformed on two important dimensions: Revenue and bookings... we are finally seeing sustained reductions in resignations across the globe. This will lead to significant reductions in voluntary attrition in Q4, which, building on Q3 reductions, will help us drive growth acceleration."

Humphries also said that the primary driver of revenue shortfall was a reduction in US onshore billable resources in recent quarters. Its Q4 revenue guidance is expected to be $4.72-$4.77 bn, a decline of 0.2%-1.2%. The company's operating margin and adjusted operating margin stood at 16.4%, an increase of 100 and 60 basis points YoY, respectively.

Company has revised 2022 revenue guidance

For the second time, the company has revised its 2022 revenue guidance. It revises full-year 2022 revenue growth guidance to 4.5%, or 7.0% in constant currency. This is lower than its previous guidance- 8.5-9.5%. The company follows the calendar year. Its revenues in the September quarter stood at $4.9 billion.

BOB TIRANGA DEPOSIT SCHEME OFFERS 7.5%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

EVEN as most banks continue to drag their feet when it comes to increasing deposit rates, Bank of Baroda (BoB) has launched Baroda Tiranga Plus Deposit Scheme that offers higher interest rate of up to 7.5% per annum for 399 days with effect from November 1, 2022, which includes 0.5% per annum for senior citizens and 0.25% for non-callable deposits.

The scheme is applicable for only retail term deposits below Rs 2 crore. BoB has raised premium on Non-Callable Retail Term Deposits from 0.15% per annum to 0.25% per annum. Non-callable deposit schemes are those which do not allow premature withdrawal. They money in the deposit can't be withdrawn before time. Ajay K Khurana, executive director, Bank of Baroda, said, "In a rising interest rate environment, we are pleased to offer a higher interest rate to consumers so that they earn more on their savings. The Baroda Tiranga Plus scheme offers higher rates and assured returns. On our Non-Callable Deposits, the bank has also decided to raise Non-Callable Premium from 0.15% to 0.25% on retail term deposits." By raising the Non-Callable Premium from 0.15% to 0.25% a year, rates on the BoB's Advantage Retail Term Deposit Scheme (Non – Callable) have increased by 10 bps.

DBS shifts focus on retail, MSME loans

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

SINGAPORE-headquartered multi-national bank DBS plans to diversify its lending portfolio in the country into gold loans, consumer finance and MSME loans, from its strong suit of corporate lending.

The bank targets a three-fold rise in gold loan portfolio from ₹4,500 crore to ₹13,500 crore in the next five years. The bank pins its hope on high-demand for gold-backed lending, especially from the agricultural community, attractive interest rates, and low processing fees.

Speaking to the press, Bharath Mani, executive director and head of retail and customer segment of DBS Bank India, said the bank aims to generate 40% of its revenue from retail and MSME loans in next five years, stressing that its focus on high-end corporate and institutional banking will remain same. However, this would bring down the share of revenue from corporate banking to 60% from 70% at present. The amalgamation with Lakshmi Vilas Bank (LVB) brings in scale, size and the ability for DBS to move across from just being a corporate and wealth management and high net-worth bank, he added.

DBS to focus on micro, small and medium industry credit with an average ticket size (loan amount) of ₹20 lakh to ₹30 lakh, tapping into potential in the smaller towns. "Now, we want to enter the full spectrum, right from local shopkeepers and local traders, upwards to SMEs, (and) emerging corporates. We will be able to cover the full spectrum of entities," Mani said.

DPE seeks FinMin nod for RDPL transfer to Raj govt

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Department of Public Enterprises (DPE) has sought an approval from finance ministry for the transfer of Rajasthan Drugs & Pharmaceuticals to the Government of Rajasthan.

It had received a draft Cabinet note from the Department of Pharmaceuticals for comments, according to the government document seen by this newspaper. Rajasthan Drugs & Pharmaceuticals is a central PSU, with a 51% equity shares held by the central government and 49% equity shares held by the Rajasthan government through RIICO Ltd. The company was incorporated in 1978. It is a formulation unit engaged in the production of tablets, capsules, liquid orals and oral rehydration salts. Its manufacturing facility is based in Jaipur. The commercial production was commissioned in April, 1981.

Currently, there are six pharma PSUs - Indian Drugs & Pharmaceuticals, Hindustan Antibiotics, Karnataka Antibiotics & Pharma, Bengal Chemicals & Pharma and Rajasthan Drugs & Pharma.

Under the new CPSE holding, finance ministry has been holding discussions to shut or divest units in the non-strategic sector. The Committee of Group of Officers (CGO) has so far held three meetings to consider for the closure or disinvestment of CPSEs under the department of pharmaceutical, telecommunications, housing and urban affairs, health and family ministry and department of fertilizers. Currently, there are nearly 380 PSEs including subsidiaries, of which about 20-30% of which may be shut because of consistent losses and being unviable.

Q2 EARNINGS

HDFC net profit rises 18% to ₹4,454 crore in Q2

MERGER-bound mortgage major HDFC on Thursday reported an 18% growth in net income to ₹4,454 crore for the second quarter of the financial year 2022-23, mainly driven by higher retail loan sales that hit an eight-year high of 36%.

On a consolidated basis, it reported a higher 24% increase in net income to ₹7,043 crore from ₹5,670 crore, buoyed by higher dividends from the subsidiaries, which nearly doubled to ₹2,046 crore from ₹1,188 crore. However, the profit from the sale of investments fell to ₹184 crore from ₹263 crore.

The company has reported a flat net interest margin of 3.4%.

Its vice-chairman and chief executive Keiky Mistry explained that unlike banks, which reprice loans and deposits on a monthly basis, especially in a rising interest rate scenario, housing finance companies reprice loans with a higher lag of 1.5 months while the cost of funds gets repriced immediately. This has had a 10-12 bps compression in the margins during this quarter.

"This lagged transmission is the only reason for the flat NIM in the reporting quarter, and the impact of the lending rate hikes, which we did during this period should be visible from the third quarter. The company reported a lower NIM of 3.4% for the reporting quarter. But higher loan sales, especially the retail loans, which rose to an eight-year high of 36%, thus offsetting the flat NIM, helped it book a 13% higher net interest income of ₹4,639 crore.

Hero MotoCorp Q2 net dips 9% to ₹682 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

HERO MOTOCORP on Thursday reported a 9% fall in its consolidated net profit to ₹682 crore for the second quarter ending September 30, mainly on account of enhanced expenses and a slight fall in sales during the period.

The country's largest two-wheeler maker had reported a net profit of ₹748 crore for the same period of the previous financial year. The revenue from operations rose to ₹9,158 crore in Q2FY23 as against ₹8,539 crore in the year-ago period, Hero MotoCorp said in a regulatory filing. The company's total expenses during the quarter rose 9% to ₹8,292 crore from ₹7,641 crore a year ago. On a standalone basis, it reported a PAT of ₹716 crore as against ₹794 crore in the same period of last fiscal. Revenue from operations rose to ₹9,075 crore in Q2 against ₹8,453 crore in the year-ago period.

Adani Wilmar Q2 PAT down 73%

MUMBAI: Adani Wilmar on Thursday reported a 73% fall in consolidated Profit After Tax (PAT) at ₹49 crore during the quarter ending September 30. Its PAT stood at ₹182 crore in the year-ago period, Adani Wilmar said. Revenue grew 5% during the quarter under review to ₹14,209 crore as against ₹13,584 crore in year-ago period. ENS

Adani Ent profit doubles in Q2

NEW DELHI: Adani Group's flagship firm Adani Enterprises on Thursday reported more than doubling of its Q2FY23 net profit on the back of strong performance at its integrated resources management and airports divisions. AEL posted a net profit of ₹460.94 crore in Q2 as against ₹212.41 crore in the same period a year back. ENS

Indian Bank Q2 profit up 13%

CHENNAI: Indian Bank's net profit increased by 13% to ₹1,225 crore in the September quarter of 2022 (Q2FY23), led by strong lending in retail, agriculture and MSME sector (RAM) and a good recovery. Operating profit of the bank has jumped 11% and net interest income (NII) increased by 15% YoY from ₹4,084 crore to ₹4684 crore. ENS

Bank of India Q2 profit falls 10%

MUMBAI: State-owned Bank of India on Thursday reported a nearly 10% fall in net income to ₹960 crore for the September 2022 quarter on higher provisioning, which more than doubled to ₹1,912 crore. The bank had made a provision of only Rs 894 crore in the year-ago period, which negated other improvements in the key numbers. ENS

Satwik-Chirag in Hylo Open quarters

Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty entered the quarterfinals of the Hylo Open in Saarbrucken, Germany with a hard-fought win on Thursday. The Indian pair beat English pair of Rory Easton and Zach Russ 22-23, 21-15, 21-11. Women's doubles pair of Treesa Jolly and Gayatri Gopichand also advanced to quarters.

In IOA's amended constitution, EC members are office-bearers

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

THERE will be no voting right for state units. National Sports Federations who are part of Olympics, Asian and Commonwealth Games programme will have two votes (one male and one female), no secretary general but a Chief Executive Officer, no restrictive clause, promoting gender equality. These are some of the changes incorporated in the Indian Olympic Association amended constitution approved by the Supreme Court on Thursday and has been circulated among all stakeholders for perusal.

The constitution was drafted by SC-appointed retired judge L Nageswara Rao and was submitted well before the deadline. According to Vidushpat Singhania, who assisted Rao to amend the constitution, the process was done in consultation with all stakeholders, including the IOA. Any discrepancy or objection raised by a member, he said should be addressed to the SC. "Any petition relating to the constitution or the election should be addressed, as per its order, to the SC," he said.

EC members office-bearers

The draft constitution considers all EC members as office bearers: "All members of the Executive Council shall be called Office Bearers." And according to the new rule, "an office bearer shall be allowed to hold office for more than 3 terms. No member shall hold one or more Office Bearer Post for more than 2 consecutive terms. An office bearer shall have to undergo a cooling-off period after 2 consecutive terms." This will lead to mass exit of EC members who have been part of the IOA since 2014. Among the 33, hardly a few will be eligible to be part of the current set up. Even for IOA secretary general Rajeev Mehta will be ineligible to contest.

The new pattern of voting will give more power to NSFs and even member eligible for contesting elections will be from among them.

Since the constitution has been finalised in consultation with the IOC, according to one of the members who was part of the drafting process said, there should not be problem getting it approved in the Special General Meeting on November 10. According to the amended constitution 'Federation' means the NSF whose sports features in the programme of the Olympic Games, Asian Games and/or the Commonwealth Games."

The NSFs will have two voting rights "Provided that one representative is male and one is female". If there is no female member, the NSF will lose its vote. Instead of the 25 per cent representation of eminent sportspersons in the IOA, the amended constitution has said there will eight representatives of Sportspersons of Outstanding Merit (SOM) "provided that 4 (four) representatives are males and 4 (four) are females".

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

1 President; 2 One (1) Senior Vice President; 3 Two (2) Vice-Presidents, including one male and one female Vice President; 4 Treasurer; 5 Two (2) Joint Secretaries, including one male and one female Joint Secretary; 6 Six (6) other Executive Council members, out of which two(2), one male and one female, shall be from the elected SOMs; 7 Two (2) representatives, one male and one female, elected by the Athletes Commission from among its members; Ex-officio: 2 IOC members (with vote); 1 CEO (no vote)

EC size pruned

The number of members in the Executive Council too has been pruned. It has been brought down to 14 from 31. The two IOC members will be ex-0fficio member with voting rights, while the newly-created post of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will be without voting rights.

No office bearer can continue after serving two four-year term. Earlier, the president could continue for three four-year term with or without cooling off. Re-election of office-bearers can be elected through simple majority. "Office Bearers shall be elected on obtaining more than 50% of the votes validly cast by the members present and voting in the election." According to the Delhi High Court Order, it was supposed to be 2/3rd majority. However, even the IOC had objected to this provision.

No vote for states

What could be a contentious issue during the SGM on November 10, is state units being not given voting rights. There are members who felt this was a bit too harsh for the state units, but some felt that it was not much of an issue.

Sportspersons to the fore

The constitution has provision to include eight "Sportsperson of outstanding merit" or "SOM" and "shall mean...who has retired from active sports for at least one year prior to date of application and who had achieved at least one (1) of any gold, silver or bronze medals in Olympics, Commonwealth Games or Asian Games, while representing India."

SC approves December 10 deadline for elections

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday approved the proposed polling schedule submitted by retired SC judge Justice LN Rao for conducting election of the Executive Committee of the Indian Olympic Association (IOA) which are to be held on December 10, 2022. A bench of Justices DY Chandrachud and Hima Kohli while appreciating the alacrity with which Justice LN Rao undertook the task for amending IOA's Constitution also directed for its circulating the proposed amendment.

"The amendments proposed to the constitution of the Indian Olympic Association have to be circulated today so that the General Body Meeting can be held on 10 November 2022. The proposal which has been submitted in that regard is accepted. The proposed amendments are permitted to be circulated. Justice L Nageswara Rao is at liberty to chalk out the modalities for the circulation of the proposed amendments," the bench said in its order.

The top court also restrained other courts of the country from entertaining any petition relating to the amendment of the constitution of the IOA or to the election to the Executive Committee of the IOA. Court also fixed a renumeration of Rs 20 lakh for the judge for undertaking the comprehensive exercise of preparing the draft constitution.

A BREATHTAKING KNOCK TO KEEP PAK ALIVE

After horrid start with the bat, all-rounder Shadab's quickfire half-century and two wickets with the ball downs South Africa

AFP @ Sydney

GUTSY Pakistan kept their slim T20 World Cup hopes alive with a 33-run win over South Africa in a dramatic rain-affected match at the Sydney Cricket Ground on Thursday.

South Africa, who are still on course for the semifinals, came out blazing after a rain delay saw their initial target of 186 adjusted down to 142, meaning they needed 73 runs in five overs. But the asking rate was too much and they finished on 108-9 at the end of a captivating match that had a bit of everything, from bad weather to good bowling and dropped catches.

Their win means Pakistan can still reach the World Cup semifinals if they win their last match against Bangladesh on Sunday and other results go their way. But they must rely on India or South Africa losing their final games. India face Zimbabwe and the Proteas play the Netherlands.

Iftikhar Ahmed and Shadab Khan had rescued Pakistan with the bat with a superb 82-run partnership, their World Cup having looking dead and buried prior to that.

Captain Babar Azam, who failed with the bat once again, was full of praise for his fighting side. "These are our best players and everyone is ready to play," Azam said. "Everyone is a match-winner. Our first two matches were close losses, but we've given 100 percent in the last two matches and you never know, cricket is a funny game."

Iftikhar, who came to the crease with Pakistan in big trouble at 43-4, scored 51 off 35 balls and Shadab blazed 52 from 22 as Pakistan finished their innings at 185-9. Pakistan had looked headed for a certain early exit from the tournament as the South African seam attack tore through the top order.

Brief scores: Pakistan 185/9 in 20 ovs (Shadab 52, Iftikhar 51; Nortje 4/41) bt South Africa 108/9 in 14 ovs (Bavuma 36; Afridi 3/14, Shadab 2/16) via D/L method.

What the teams need (& don't want)

With one round of games to go in both groups and not a single side assured of a semifinal spot, a look at the permutations...

WHAT INDIA SHOULD DO?

Simple, really. Beat Zimbabwe in Melbourne on Sunday and they will be in one of the two semifinals. There is some rain forecast but a washout or kind of no-result works out just as well because it takes them through. If they were to lose that game, though, they could be in a direct NRR contest with Pakistan. And considering their inferior NRR compared to Pakistan, they will not want it to come down to that.

WHAT ABOUT PROTEAS & PAK?

Same thing as India. Win against Netherlands in Adelaide on Saturday and the Proteas will confirm qualification. If they were to lose, they can still go still through provided Pakistan lose against Bangladesh in Adelaide on Sunday. Pakistan are in the weakest position right now in that if all three teams win their last round games, they will finish third. A best case scenario for them is to win and put pressure on India who play the last game of the group stage.

ARE DEFENDING CHAMPIONS, AUSTRALIA, OUT?

They are in a similar position to Pakistan in that they can win their final game against Afghanistan — preferably by a very big margin — to put some kind of pressure on England who face their final game against Sri Lanka on Saturday. If all three of New Zealand, England and Australia win by similar margins, the first two teams will go through on account of superior NRR. Sri Lanka have a very small chance but need multiple dominoes — one of New Zealand or Australia to lose coupled with them beating England — to advance.

WHAT ABOUT NEW ZEALAND?

Even if they have the same points as the other two sides, any sort of win against Ireland on Friday will almost certainly guarantee them a spot in the semifinals because of their NRR. What's more, they will likely go through as group toppers.

The two likely semifinals...

Assuming India beat Zimbabwe and go through, they will likely face one of England or Australia. The other semifinal could see South Africa, provided they beat Netherlands, against the Kiwis.

Group 1
Team	M	W	L	NR	PTS	NRR
NZ	4	2	1	1	5	2.23
ENG	4	2	1	1	5	0.54
AUS	4	2	1	1	5	-0.30
SL	4	2	2	0	4	-0.45
IRE	4	1	2	1	3	-1.54
AFG	4	0	2	2	2	-0.71

Group 2
Team	M	W	L	NR	PTS	NRR
IND	4	3	1	0	6	0.73
SA	4	2	1	1	5	1.44
PAK	4	2	2	0	4	1.11
BAN	4	2	2	0	4	-1.27
ZIM	4	1	2	1	3	-0.31
NED	4	1	3	0	2	-1.23

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

During the seventh over of Bangladesh's chase, bowled by Axar Patel, Litton Das and Najmal Shanto were completing the second run when Arshdeep Singh threw the ball from deep cover. Kohli, who was stationed at point, appeared to shy at the non-striker's end when the throw was going past him to wicketkeeper Dinesh Karthik. This went unnoticed by the two on-field umpires and even the batters didn't make any appeal.

IS FAKE FIELDING PENALISED?

Yes. According to Law 41.5.1, "It is unfair for any fielder wilfully to attempt, by word or action, to distract, deceive or obstruct either batter after the striker has received the ball." Bangladesh would have been awarded five penalty runs had the umpires deemed Kohli's actions to be deliberate deception.

WHAT IS BANGLADESH SAYING?

BCB cricket operations chairman Jalal Yunus claimed that it was brought to the umpires' attention during the game, but they refused to penalise India. "The fake throw was brought to the umpire's notice but he said he didn't see it. That's why it wasn't taken to review. Shakib spoke extensively to on-field umpire Marais Erasmus, during and after the match.

FAKE OR NOT?

At the end of another India vs Bangladesh World Cup fixture, a new controversy erupted. This time it is about Virat Kohli faking a throw, which the Tigers believe was against the rules, and they should have been awarded five runs as a penalty. Incidentally, it also happened to be the margin of their defeat.

IS BANGLADESH RIGHT?

While Bangladesh accused Kohli of fake fielding, they didn't factor in the terms "distraction and deception" part in the rule. Neither Shanto nor Litton was looking at Kohli, and hence, they were not distracted or deceived.

NOT THE ONLY ISSUE

Other than this, Bangladesh are also peeved that Kohli pointed to leg-umpire when Hasan Mahmud delivered a second bouncer in the 16th over. While Erasmus signaled no-ball as per the rules, it led to Bangladesh captain Shakib Al Hasan confronting Kohli and having a conversation before the umpire intervened. Similarly, the Tigers were unhappy that the match resumed after the rain break as they deemed the outfield to be wet.

Giroud inspires Milan to CL knock-outs

AFP @ Milan

OLIVIER Giroud shot AC Milan back into European football's elite on Wednesday with his brace in a 4-0 win over Salzburg which granted his team passage to the Champions League knockout stages.

Milan needed a point in front of over 70,000 fans at the San Siro to reach the last 16 for the first time since the 2013/14 season but they cruised through thanks to Giroud. The France striker netted in each half, set up Rade Krunic's header just after half-time which doubled the hosts' lead and was also involved in Junior Messias' stoppage-time strike which rounded off the scoring.

Seven-time European champions Milan finished Group E in second place, three points behind winners Chelsea and will be a team to watch out for in Monday's draw.

Meanwhile, European champions Real Madrid made light work of Celtic with a 5-1 win to progress to the last 16 as Group F winners.

Results: Group E: Chelsea 2-1 Dinamo Zagreb, AC Milan 4-0 Salzburg. Group F: Real Madrid 5-1 Celtic, Shakhtar Donetsk 0-4 RB Leipzig. Group G: Manchester City 3-1 Sevilla, FC Copenhagen 1-1 Borussia Dortmund. Group H: Juventus 1-2 Paris Saint-Germain, Maccabi Haifa 1-6 Benfica.

LEARNING CURVE

Richa on experience, Ghosh wants to make it count

GOMESH S @ Bengaluru

RICHA Ghosh has come a long way since that heartbreaking March night at Melbourne Cricket Ground two years ago. Playing just her third international match, the then 17-year-old came in at No. 8 and scored a run-a-ball 18 in the final of the 2020 T20 World Cup. The visuals of her and Shafali Verma in inconsolable tears after the defeat against Australia are etched in everyone's memories.

But she is not that nervous teenager anymore. Yes, she is still 19, but in the 30 months since, Richa has grown into one of the most audacious batting talents in world cricket. She made her ODI debut, played in an ODI World Cup, secured a WBBL contract in 2021, dominated the Asia Cup after being left out of CWG 2022, and has grown into one of the toughest roles in the sport — she is India's designated finisher in white-ball cricket.

But more than anything else, Richa feels her evolution is in the way she reads the game now. "I understand the game better now," said the Bengal wicketkeeper in a select media interaction after defeating Himachal Pradesh in a rain-curtailed semifinal of Senior Women's T20 at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium, Thursday. "I know what the team needs in certain situations. Now, responsibility has also increased. When the team is in trouble, how to get out of it is what the focus is on," she added.

Her performances back it up as well. Needing 11 runs from three balls to put Bengal ahead of the VJD method par score in the semifinal, Richa smashed a six with disdain to take them closer before the heavens broke and helped them progress to the final. A month ago in Bangladesh, she was taking apart the Pakistan attack and almost single-handedly won the game for India. Her performance in the Asia Cup made everyone wonder why she was not a part of the India squad that lost in the gold medal match against Australia in CWG 2022.

Richa did not let the time away from the Indian team affect her. She worked on her fitness, power-hitting, and wicketkeeping to come back a much-improved version of herself. She said that the team management has been clear about her role and supported her every step of the way. She understands that failures are a part of the sport, especially when someone plays such a high-risk role as a T20 finisher as hers. And this is where the backing of the leadership group has boosted her confidence.

"I always play my normal game. Where I can hit the ball, I work on those shots. Some days it works and some days it doesn't. But I won't stop playing those shots. On most days, we have to take risks, and when we do it wouldn't be 100/100 every time right? Harry di (Harmanpreet Kaur) and Smriti (Mandhana) understand me and support me well. They back me up even if I make a mistake or miss a ball. We back each other. We take it as a positive and see how to improve." And it is not just the team management, she had picked up the brains of every possible person she could to improve her game.

While Richa has her eyes on the T20 World Cup in South Africa, she doesn't want to look too far ahead. She first wants to work towards the upcoming Australia series and take it from there.
